Amazing Day Tour to Cairo from Hurghada by Bus

Don't miss this opportunity and enjoy one of the fun excursions to Cairo from Hurghada by bus.

With Cairo Top Tours, you will have the opportunity to see the Pyramids of Giza, an archaeological site in Egypt that includes the Great Pyramid, the Pyramid of Khafre, the Pyramid of Menkaure, as well as associated complexes and the Great Sphinx. These monuments were built during the Fourth Dynasty of the Old Kingdom in ancient Egypt between about 2600 and 2500 BC. The site also includes several temples, tombs, and the remains of a workers' village.

The complex is located on the edge of the Western Desert, about 9 kilometers (5.6 miles) west of the Nile River in the city of Giza, and about 13 kilometers (8.1 miles) southwest of downtown Cairo. The site forms the northern part of the Pyramid Fields, which cover an area of 16,000 hectares (160 square kilometers or 62 square miles).

Our next step will be to the Egyptian Museum, which is one of the largest and most famous museums in the world, located in the heart of the Egyptian capital, Cairo, on the northern side of Tahrir Square. It was established in 1835 and was then located in Azbakeya Park, where it included a large number of diverse antiquities, then its contents were moved to the second exhibition hall in Salah al-Din Citadel, until the French Egyptologist Auguste Mariette, who was working at the Louvre Museum, thought of opening a museum in which to display a collection of antiquities on the shore of the Nile at Boulaq. When these antiquities were exposed to the danger of flooding, they were moved to a special annex of Khedive Ismail's palace in Giza. Then Egyptologist Gaston Maspero came, and in 1902, during the reign of Khedive Abbas Helmi II, the new museum building opened in its current location in the heart of Cairo.

You will also have the opportunity to see one of the most famous destinations in Cairo, Coptic Cairo, which is a part of Old Cairo that includes the Babylon Fortress, the Coptic Museum, the Hanging Church, the Greek Church of St. Georg, and many other Coptic churches and historical sites. According to Christian tradition, the Holy Family visited this area and stayed in the church of Saints Sergius and Bacchus (Abu Sarja).

Through this tour you will enjoy every moment of your vacation exploring the famous historical sites in Cairo.

After you take your bus from Hurghada to Cairo, once you arrive in the city, you will find one of our expert guides waiting for you to explain everything to you in detail.

Your day begins with an unforgettable visit to one of the biggest and most well-known museums in the world. The Egyptian Museum, which is situated on the northern side of Tahrir Square in the center of Cairo, the Egyptian capital. When it was founded in 1835, it was housed in Azbakeya Park and contained a wide variety of antiquities. Later, its contents were transferred to Salah al-Din Citadel's second exhibition hall. It wasn't until Auguste Mariette, a French Egyptologist working at the Louvre Museum, had the idea to open a museum at Boulaq to display a collection of antiquities on the Nile shore. Once these artifacts were under risk of flooding, they were relocated to a special annex of the palace of Khedive Ismail at Giza. Then arrived Egyptologist Gaston Maspero, and the new museum building opened in its present site in the center of Cairo in 1902, during the rule of Khedive Abbas Helmi II.

You will also have the opportunity to explore the Coptic Museum, the Hanging Church, the Greek Church of St. George, the Babylon Fortress, and other Coptic churches and historical sites located in Coptic Cairo, one of Cairo's best-known tourist destinations. Christian legend states that the Holy Family came to this region and stayed in the church of Saints Bacchus and Sergius (Abu Sarja).

We conclude our excursion with an unforgettable visit to one of the seven wonders of the world that is still located, the Pyramids of Giza, an archaeological site in Egypt that includes the Great Pyramid, the Pyramid of Khafre, the Pyramid of Menkaure, as well as associated complexes and the Great Sphinx. These monuments were built during the Fourth Dynasty of the Old Kingdom in ancient Egypt, between approximately 2600 and 2500 BC. The site also includes several temples, tombs, and the remains of a workers' village.

The complex is situated on the edge of the Western Desert, some 13 kilometers (8.1 miles) southwest of Cairo's downtown and 9 kilometers (5.6 miles) west of the Nile River near the city of Giza. The location makes up the northern portion of the 16,000-hectare Pyramid Fields, which are 160 square kilometers or 62 square miles in size.

After finishing your excursions in Cairo, you will take your bus back to Hurghada.
