With the fresh breeze of the sea and the scent of history, our journey today takes you to the bride of the Mediterranean, Alexandria, where ancient alleys mingle with the pulse of modern life. In a day, you will live an unforgettable experience among the enchanting monuments that tell the stories of Pharaohs, Greeks, and Romans and savor the city's unique flavors on its picturesque beaches.

Cairo Top Tours will allow you to explore Alexandria in a day of fun excursions starting with a visit to the Qaitbay Citadel, located at the end of Pharos Island in the El Sayyala area in the El Gomrok neighborhood in the far west of Alexandria, built on the ruins of one of the Seven Wonders of the World. It is the lighthouse of ancient Alexandria. This castle was built by Sultan Al-Ashraf King Abu Al-Nasr Qaitbay Al-Mahmoudi in 882 AH / 1477 AD.

You will also enjoy an unforgettable visit to the Library of Alexandria, also known as the Royal Library of Alexandria or the Great Library; it was the largest library of its time, built by Ptolemy I. It is said to have been founded by Alexander the Great some twenty-three centuries ago and is also said to have been founded by Ptolemy II in the early third century BC.

As you are in Alexandria, you cannot miss seeing the Pillar of Pompey. In the third century A.D., the column was built in honor of Emperor Diocletian. It is the last surviving relic of the Temple of Serapeum erected by Emperor Posthumus. The body of the column is a single piece.

You will also enjoy an ideal visit to the tombs of Kom el Shoqafa. Located in the Karmouz district of the West Alexandria neighborhood, the Kom El Shoqafa cemetery dates back to the second century AD and is considered one of the most important cemeteries in the city, and the area was named after the many pottery remains and crushers that accumulated in this place.

Throughout this day trip in Alexandria, you will enjoy every moment of your excursion.

Privat Full-Day Trip in Alexandria

Join one of the esteemed trips offered by Cairo Top Tours to experience something genuinely exceptional. Through our tours, you could make a lot of memories that will last throughout your entire vacation.

Our knowledgeable guide will meet you at your Alexandria hotel in a private, air-conditioned vehicle and take you on all of your excursions, beginning with a memorable tour of the Library of Alexandria, also called the Great Library or the Royal Library of Alexandria. Constructed by Ptolemy I, it was the biggest library of its time. Alexander the Great is credited with founding it some 23 centuries before Ptolemy II, who did so in the early third century BC.

Next, we continue our journey to the Qaitbay Citadel, which is situated on the remains of one of the Seven Wonders of the World and is situated at the point of Pharos Island, near El Sayyala, in the district of El Gomrok, at the western end of Alexandria. It is the antique Alexandrian lighthouse. Sultan Al-Ashraf, King Abu Al-Nasr Qaitbay Al-Mahmoudi, constructed this castle between 882 and 1477.

We shall next proceed to Kom el Shoqafa's tombs. Situated in the West Alexandria neighborhood of the Karmouz district, the Kom el Shoqafa cemetery is one of the most significant in the city and dates back to the second century AD. The area got its name from the large number of pottery remains and crushers that accumulated there.

Last but not least, we must explore the Pompey Column, which was built in the third century AD in honor of Emperor Diocletian and is the only surviving artifact from Emperor Postumus' Temple of Serapeum. The column's body is one piece.

Before finishing your excursions, you will have the opportunity to taste the delicious Alexandrian fish in one of the local restaurants of the city. Finally, we will drop you off at your Alexandria hotel.
