Suez Canal Day Trip from Cairo

A Cairo Top Tours representative with an expert guide will be waiting for you at your hotel in Cairo in a private, air-conditioned car to accompany you on one of the most valuable excursions in Egypt's history; the Suez Canal day tour is considered an impressive opportunity that you should not miss during your visit to Cairo.

Your day starts with a transfer to Ismailia, which is about two and a half hours from Cairo; once you arrive in Ismailia, you can visit the Suez Canal, which is one of the most important sea lanes in the world due to the time, cost, and effort it saves the global economy, as evidenced by the fact that between 8% and 12% of global trade passes through the canal, and the highest annual revenue reached about 9.4 billion US dollars in the fiscal year.

On your day tour to the Suez Canal, you can unwind with a hot beverage on the Suez Canal while taking in the view of the magnificent ships passing through this man-made wonder from the viewpoint of a military club. The canal, which cuts the journey time between Europe and Asia by tens of thousands of kilometers, is an essential waterway that stretches 190 kilometers from Port Said on the Mediterranean in the north to the Red Sea's Suez Governorate in the south.

As your journey comes to a close, you'll return to Cairo with newfound knowledge and lasting memories of the Suez Canal's significance in Egypt and the world.
