

Tour to The amazing Attractions in Luxor

Price Starting From : $0

Day tour
Egypt
Luxor

You will enjoy with us one of the best excursions that will take you to Upper Egypt, where you can take a distinctive tour that starts from the banks of the eternal Nile River, where the city of Luxor, known as an open museum that narrates the greatest chapters of the ancient Egyptian civilization, is also a unique journey to the capital of ancient Pharaonic Egypt, where the fragrance of history meets the magic of nature. In Luxor, the sun embraces the columns of the temples, ancient stories are told on the walls of the tombs, and you can feel as if you have traveled thousands of years back in time through the precious historical tour.

Luxor and Karnak Temples, as well as the hidden tombs in the Valley of the Kings, are some of the magnificent landmarks of the Luxor Tour that you may see on our day trip. Every place illuminates the splendor of ancient Egypt. Its magnificent temples, intricate hieroglyphs, and intimidating sculptures make this historical journey one to remember.

Overview

Inclusion

- Complimentary bottles of water and soft drinks are included during the trip.
- Private air-conditioned vehicles are used for all transfers.
- Tickets and entrance fees to the itinerary sites in the West Bank and the East Bank.
- A delicious lunch at a local restaurant in Luxor is included during our tour and all our Egypt Day Tours.
- Any taxes and service charges are covered by us.
- An English-speaking Egyptologist during all our Luxor Day Tours.

Exclusion

- Ticket to the tomb of King Tutankhamun, the tomb of King Seti I, and the tomb of King Ramses XI in the Valley of the Kings.
- Gratuities are not expected during the day visit of Luxor to the east and west bank.
- Photographic ticket in the Valley of the Kings during Luxor day tours and excursions.
- Rates also apply during Christmas and New Year tours in Egypt or Easter tours in Egypt.

Itinerary

Day Tour to Luxor Attraction

Cairo Top Tours guide will meet you in Luxor at your hotel, Luxor airport, or Luxor station to accompany you during your day tour in a private air-conditioned car.

Your trip will begin in Luxor, formerly known as Thebes, the capital of Egypt during the Pharaonic era, located on the banks of the Nile River, which divides it into the Eastern and Western Mainland, We will start our trip by exploring the western mainland, where we can visit the Valley of the Kings, which was used for 500 years during the period between the sixteenth and eleventh centuries BC to build tombs for the pharaohs and nobles of the New Kingdom, which extended during the eras of the eighteenth to twentieth dynasties of ancient Egypt.

After that we will explore the Temple of Hatshepsut, known as the Bahari Monastery is a group of pharaonic temples and tombs located on the west bank of the Nile opposite Luxor, Egypt. The monastery was built by Queen Hatshepsut to perform rituals that benefit her in the other world, while the name Al-Deir Al-Bahri is a modern Arabic name given to this area in the seventh century AD after the Copts used this temple as a monastery for them, and then we will continue our visit to the western land by visiting the two statues of Memnon, which are two huge statues, built around 1350 BC, which are all that remains of a temple built in memory of Pharaoh Amenhotep III, who ruled Egypt during the Eighteenth Dynasty.

After that, we start another adventure on the east bank of Luxor where we can visit the Luxor Temple A large ancient Egyptian complex, it was founded in 1400 BC. The Luxor Temple was built to worship Amun-Ra, his wife Mut and his son Khonsu; gods that are also known as the Theban Trinity. The Luxor Temple was built during the 18th and 19th dynasties.

We will conclude our trip with The temple of Karnak is given its name from the city of Karnak, which is a modern corruption of the Arabic word Khurnak, meaning fortified town, and which was used for many temples in the region during this period.

Finally, we will transfer you back to your hotel.

Meals Included: Lunch