A Wonderful Trip to the East and West Banks of Luxor

Cairo Top Tours allows you to immerse yourself in the history of Egypt. So, through the day tour to Luxor, you will explore one of the most touristic cities. You will admire the two most famous parts of the city, the east bank, and the west bank, starting with a visit to the magnificence of the Temple of Luxor, famous for its amazing architectural and historical importance, and see the extensive Karnak Temple Complex, one of the largest of its kind in the world, on the east bank.

To explore the Valley of the Kings, the last resting place of numerous pharaohs, including Tutankhamun, cross over to the West Bank. Stand in front of the imposing Colossi of Memnon and tour the beautiful funerary temple of Hatshepsut, the only female pharaoh of ancient Egypt.

Learn why Luxor is frequently called the best outdoor museum of Egyptian antiquities in the world. The vast Karnak temple complex, which covers more than 60 acres—an area larger than any ancient city—will be visited on this tour.

Some of the most renowned historical sites in Egypt may be found at the West Bank of Luxor. After touring the Temple of Luxor, built by King Ramses II, you will go to the West Bank to see the famous Colossi of Memnon, the enormous statues of King Amenhotep III, the Valley of the Kings, and the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut.

Experience the rich history and breathtaking landmarks of this ancient city by scheduling your private Luxor day trips and excursions with Cairo Top Tours right now.

East and the West Banks Day Trip

We will begin our tour to the west bank of the Nile. Our first visit will be to the extensive Karnak Temple complex, which will highlight its vast hypostyle hall and other features built over many centuries. Then we will continue our tour to the statues of the Colossi of Memnon and the impressive mortuary temple complex of Hatshepsut, set against the cliffs.

We will then explore the famous Valley of the Kings, where we will visit several royal tombs adorned with intricate wall paintings. Then we will have lunch at a local restaurant and visit an alabaster workshop to observe how the artisans make their products. Afterward, we will return to the eastern shore.

The day concludes with a visit to the refined Temple of Luxor, known for its role in the annual festivals. Before returning to the hotel, you will have the opportunity to explore the nearby city.

This one-day itinerary offers a comprehensive overview of Luxor's most significant archaeological sites, guided by a local expert.
