Day tour to Cairo by Plane from Sharm El Sheikh

Your trip will begin when our representative picks you up and then drives you to Sharm El Sheikh International Airport in an air-conditioned private vehicle. Your encounter with amazing Egypt will begin once you arrive in Cairo under the guidance of an English-speaking guide from Toronto Top Tours.

Visitors should begin their exploration at Khan El Khalili Bazaar because it has earned its status as Egypt's oldest and most famous open-air marketplace. Wander the crowded roads to see beautifully handcrafted products while experiencing the energetic routine of the local traders. At this market, visitors can find both Egyptian culture and unique collectibles that will define their Cairo experience.

Due to the Sphinx and Mycerinus, Chephren and Cheops, together with the Sphinx, you need to go to Giza Plateau's magnificent location. History claims that Thutmose IV proclaimed the statue of the Sphinx would offer him the Egyptian kingship after he cleaned off its sandy camouflage. This historic area's guide brings alive the remarkable tale of these famous sites, whose incredible glory and magic enthrall visitors endlessly.

Before continuing your travel, you must treat your body to genuine Egyptian food at a top-rated local restaurant following Giza site visits.

After proceeding to the Egyptian Museum you will encounter one of the world's most outstanding collections of timeless artifacts. At the museum, guests will find extraordinary exhibits, including both the Narmer palette about Upper and Lower Egypt's unification and items produced by pyramid designers. Among museums, it stands alone as the best place to view Egypt's historic achievements with its mastery of artistic expression.

You will transfer to the Cairo International Airport to begin your journey back to your hotel in Sharm El Sheikh.
