

Cairo Day Trip from Sharm by Bus

Price Starting From : $120

Day Trip
Egypt
Cairo

On a day trip to Cairo from Sharm El Sheikh by bus , you will have the opportunity to explore an important part of the pharaohs' civilization that attracts tourists from all over the world.

You will have an amazing experience visiting the Egyptian Museum, one of the biggest and most well-known museums in the world. It is situated on the north side of Tahrir Square in the center of Cairo, the Egyptian capital. Established in 1835, it was formerly housed in Azbakeya Park and had a lot of different items. Later, it moved with its contents to the Citadel Salah al-Din's second display hall.

You will have a great lunch at one of Cairo's neighborhood eateries when you go with Cairo Top Tours.

The Great Pyramid, the Pyramid of Khafre, the Pyramid of Menkaure, and related complexes, as well as the Great Sphinx, are all part of the archaeological site of Giza, one of the most stunning pyramids in the world. Between around 2600 and 2500 BC, under the Fourth Dynasty of the Old Kingdom of Ancient Egypt, these monuments were constructed. The site also contains the remnants of a workers' settlement, a number of temples, and tombs.

Day Trip To Cairo from Sharm El Sheikh by bus

We will wait to transport you in a private vehicle to the Giza Pyramids site with your personal tour guide as soon as your bus from Sharm El Sheikh arrives. We'll start your amazing bus trip to Cairo from there.

Your day starts with an amazing tour of the Egyptian Museum, one of the first museums in the world to be made public. With almost 180,000 objects, the museum is unlike its predecessors. The most significant of these are the archeological collections discovered in the tombs of the monarchs and royal entourage of the Middle Dynasty at Dahshur in 1894. Today, the museum has the largest archaeological collection in the world, representing every period of ancient Egyptian history. The museum structure was added to the list of archaeological structures with distinctive architectural significance in 1983. August 2006 saw the completion of the museum's primary development, which aimed to transform it into a scientific and cultural by replacing the destroyed informal settlements on the west side of the museum with a commercial administrative addition and a cultural center.

One of the world's wonders, the Pyramids of Giza, will be the destination of your second trip. The Great Pyramid, the Pyramid of Khafre, the Pyramid of Menkaure, and other related complexes, as well as the Great Sphinx, are all part of the Tomb of Giza, an Egyptian archeological site. Between 2600 and 2500 BC, during the Fourth Dynasty of the Old Kingdom, these monuments were constructed in ancient Egypt. At the site, there are also several temples, tombs, and the remains of a workers' encampment.

Following that, you will eat a very tasty lunch at a Cairo neighborhood restaurant.

Our agent will drive you back to Sharm El Sheikh in a contemporary, air-conditioned vehicle so you can catch the bus.

Included in the meals: lunch
