Day 2 : Tour to Giza pyramids, Saqqara, and Memphis city.

Be ready for a different morning with your delicious breakfast to start your tour of the secrets of the Egyptian civilization. Your adventure will start by visiting the Great Giza Pyramids.

The Great Giza Pyramids are royal tombs, but not like any royal tombs. The Egyptian kings had a strong belief that they were chosen by the gods to rule Egypt; therefore, they planned to build massive tombs to secure their mummified bodies, their valuable possessions, and symbols from their lives. They used stones of the best quality to build the pyramids; the pyramids date back to three famous kings, Khufu, Chefren, and Menkure. When you see the pyramids, you will be surprised by the huge construction that has needed more than 100,000 workers to build them. When you reach the pyramids, your tour guide will reveal more secrets and details about the pyramids and the great stories behind them. Our team will be helping you capturing beautiful pictures around the great pyramids.

Then we move to see one of the greatest statues in Egyptian history, the statue of the great Sphinx. It is one of the large statues revealing the power of the Egyptian kingdom. It is the guardian of the treasures of the pyramids, having a semi-lion body with a human head. when you see it for the first glance, seeing the statue setting in front of the sun rays, representing solidarity, wisdom, and power.

The pyramids of Giza are continuous when you see the temple of the valley. It was a significant temple to the Egyptians where they prepared the body of the dead king or the dead person to be mummified, so it gained a very valuable position to the ancient Egyptians. It has a high position because of the religious traditions that were happening inside the temple.

Saqqara :

Saqqara is called the open-air museum; it includes many tombs for the kings and the nobles of the first and second dynasties. It also will allow you to go in a live experience seeing the consequences of building the pyramids while seeing the pyramid of King Djoser. The pyramid of Djoser is considered the first pyramid on earth that was built by the ancient Egyptians. The shape and the construction of the pyramid have a great consequence, starting from Mastba's square shape and developing to the rectangle shape.

Saqqara also includes the Great Pyramid of Onas who was the first person to build his pyramids and decorate the room of the burying with texts of the pyramids, which were aimed to protect the dead or the king during his journey to another world. It is not the end of the pyramid's history; let's continue to Memphis City.

Memphis city:

It is one of the rich cities with ancient Egyptian treasures. It was founded by King Narmer, and it was the capital of the ancient Egyptian kingdom. It includes one of the most sparkling statues in Egypt for King Rameses with a height of 10 meters and weighing about 100 tons. The name of Memphis appeared after King

Bebi considered it the capital with white walls surrounding it.

Finally, you will be transferred to your hotel to relax.

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch

Day 3 : Exploring Old Cairo symbols

On the second day of your journey, have your delicious breakfast to start your tour to explore the highlights of the Old Cairo area and the Egyptian Museum in Tahrir Square. Our certified tour guide will accompany you on a new adventure to discover more and more about Cairo. Our first treasure will be the Egyptian Museum in Tahrir Square near the downtown area.

It is considered the oldest museum in the Middle East; it also includes unique and beautiful pieces of Egyptian kings and queens through different ages. It also includes the statue of one of the most famous kings in history: King Khufu, the owner of the largest pyramid in Giza, and its made of ivory. In addition, the museum is very rich in pieces of jewelry and valuable treasures, including the most known treasure of King Tutankhamun.

Then we move to see one of the significant sights in Egypt: the citadel of Salah El Din, which was built to be the capital for the Egyptian rulers and administrative decisions. It is a large citadel consisting of four gates, thirteen towers, and four mosques. This massive citadel embraces an enchanting mosque of Muhammed Ali Basha, also called the Alabaster Mosque. The mosque has been built in the Turkish style, and it also has a magnificent clock that was a gift from the French king Louis Philipe to Muhammed Ali. When you see the citadel, you will also have a great view of all of Cairo from the highest point.

Then we move to another unique part of Cairo, which is Coptic Cairo, where you can see the Virgin Mary church, which has another name, El Mualaka or the Hanging Church, because when you see it, it sounds suspended or Hung for being built upon the ruins of two towers of the Babylonian fortress. It embraces holy icons and a very special one for the Virgin Mary wherever you go, it seems looking for you.

Then after a little walk, you will find the great Church of Abu Serga, It is a church dedicated to the two martyrs Sergius and Bacchus for their Christian belief in Syria. It is one of the attractive churches for being one of the points that was taken as a shelter for the Holy Family trip in Egypt.

Then we move to Ben Ezra Synagogue; despite that it is a Jewish property, it looks like an ancient church. Some archeologists believe that it was a church and then sold and turned into a synagogue. The synagogue embraces various documents and books, including the history of the Jews in Egypt and the world.

We have reached the end of our day tour; let's be transferred to your hotel to rest and be ready for the next day.
