Day 1: Start your tour from Cairo to Bahariya

In the morning, your private car and your tour guide will be ready to transfer you to discover Bahariya oasis and enjoy the privacy through your air-conditioned Car during the way for three and a half hours. Your tour guide will explain to you the desert and the Egyptian oases in detail; in addition, he will give you a brief about your itinerary and the white and black deserts.

Upon arrival to the Bahriya oasis, you will see the valley of the Golden mummies, which is the site where the archeologists have found a large number of luxurious mummies mummified with gold for the Nobles and the employees who lived in the Bahriya oasis. Some historians believe that there are more mummies in this valley that have not yet.

Your tour guide will accompany you to see the temple of Alexander the Great, which is the only temple that was built during the life of Alexander to honor him. This temple represents a unique combination of the impressive Greek civilization and the stunning Egyptian civilization.

Then you will move to see the temple of Ain El Muftella, which dates back to the late ages of the ancient Egyptian dynasties. It is one of the significant recently discovered temples in this oasis. It has the same idea of being dedicated to worship the Egyptian gods of Amun, Isis, and finally Horus.

The temple structure is a series of rooms, a chapel, and walls decorated with inscriptions of scenes of sacrificial offerings to the gods. We will move to valley of el Haize which is a green valley of palms, trees inside the heart of the desert near to El Bawiti area. Moving forward, the day will not end until we see the crystal mountain with its sparkling rocks under the sun giving memorable scene to have pictures or to see by your human eye seeing a mountain of jewels.

Day 2: Enjoy nature and return to Cairo

Start the day with an organic component for a delicious breakfast from the nature of the oasis. Your guide will take you to discover the water springs in Bahariya oasis and be ready to swim in extraordinary water rich with benefits and minerals for the skin and the bones; in addition, the water is warm and relaxing even in the winter. The natural water helps in healing skin diseases and improving the flow of blood circulation.

After the relaxation, we will see and explore the black desert, which is a huge area of the desert and covered with black color volcanic rocks and pebbles. You will also see the golden dunes mixed with the black rocks, which creates a beautiful picture of strange phenomena inside the desert. On the other hand, we will see the white desert, which is characterized by its white color sand.

Geologists believe that it was a sea and it has dried, leading the sand that was under it to color the golden dunes with the white cover. This area has another unusual phenomenon of rock formations like humans, animals, and strange formations. You will see Mushroom, chicken or sphinx formations. The white color covers more than 3010 square kilometers of the desert. After enjoying your day, you will start the way to returning back to Cairo.
