Itinerary

Alexandria to Wadi El Natrun Day Tour

Your day starts with easy hotel pick-up followed by an expert guide who will drive you through picturesque scenery while headed toward Wadi El Natrun which lies a 1.5 or 2-hour journey from Alexandria.

The draw of visiting the St. Bishoy Monastery attracts you after your hotel pickup in Alexandria because this historical complex was built here in the 4th century. This important place served Christian monks who came to find protection from persecution so you can discover its spiritual meaning. Your tour guide will demonstrate extensive knowledge about the beginnings of early Christian life together with the extensive history of Egyptian monasticism.

Discover the Monastery of St. Macarius at your leisure now that you have explored its 4th century beginnings established by St. Macarius the Great. Beneath its old buildings and serene surroundings this sacred location creates an exceptional setting for meditation.

Your excursion will include a visit to the major Wadi El Natrun pilgrimage site The Monastery of the Syrians. Many visitors come to see this site for its impressive early Christian architecture and historical ascetic practice.

During your tour you will have the opportunity to observe the salt lakes of Wadi El Natrun that played a significant role in Egyptian mummification processes during ancient times. Historic ruins in their desert setting create a remarkable visual experience for this historic exploration.

As your day comes to an end discover local dining options in the valley where you can relax through lunch before heading back to Alexandria.
