Everyday

Experience the timeless marvel of the Giza Plateau on a captivating evening tour that blends ancient wonder with modern storytelling. Begin your journey at the legendary Pyramids of Giza, where your guide will introduce you to the stunning creations of Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure, as well as the enigmatic Great Sphinx. As the sun begins to set, enjoy the stunning vistas of these ancient monuments rising silhouetted against the evening sky, a perfect photo opportunity and chance to soak up their incredible history.

Having found the plateau and gained an understanding of the architectural genius and cultural significance of the pyramids, sit back in your seat for the unforgettable Sound and Light Show. At dusk, the pyramids and Sphinx glow with bright color as a narrator, heard through the voice of historical leaders, guides you through millennia of Egyptian history. With music, light, and tale, the show honors the legacy of the pharaohs and the endlessly enigmatic quality of the great structures themselves.

This experiential visit is an alternative view of the Giza Pyramids, combining informative learning with sensory beauty. A first-time visitor or returning to see the majesty again, the Sound and Light Show gives a magical element to one of the world's most legendary archaeological treasures. Return to your accommodation with indelible memories of a night filled with history, legend, and breathtaking imagery.

Itinerary

Cairo Day Tour from Aswan

Begin the day with an early hotel pickup and head to the legendary Giza Plateau, home to the mighty Pyramids of Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure. Stand close to these marvelous ancient marvels and discover from your guide the fascinating history and architectural achievements behind their construction. Stand before the enigmatic Great Sphinx, guarding the tombs for eternity, and capture panoramic photos of the pyramids and desert—a fantastic photo opportunity. If you wish, you have time for an optional camel ride or a visit to one of the pyramid chambers (tickets not included).

After your Giza Plateau tour, travel to Old Cairo, a centuries-old district filled with religious and cultural history. Visit such major sights as the Hanging Church, one of the most ancient Christian churches in Egypt, and the Ben Ezra Synagogue, which is steeped in ancient legend. Walk through the peaceful streets of Coptic Cairo and visit the Amr Ibn Al-As Mosque, the very first mosque to be built on the African continent. Take a break for a traditional Egyptian lunch at a local restaurant, sampling such local delights as grilled meats, kofta, or vegetarian dishes.

At night, return to the Giza Plateau for the dramatic Sound and Light Show. Relax under the stars as the pyramids and Sphinx come alive with special lighting and a narrated recounting of ancient Egypt's glory, presented in music and projections. This impressive show highlights the intrigue and myths of the pharaohs and their ageless monuments. After the show, relax as you're driven back to your hotel, ending your day with unforgettable memories of Egypt's ancient and modern marvels.
