Cairo Shopping Day Tour is a culturally stimulating journey through Egypt's pulsating capital, a city in which traditions lay a little fortissimo knowledge and modernity a bit more down-home charm. Your tour begins with a pickup at your hotel by a professional guide who will lead you through some of Cairo's famous shopping districts. From the ancient marketplace scene to modern bazaar life, the tour gives you a unique opportunity to appreciate the indigenous commerce and craftsmanship of this tourist attraction.

Khan el-Khalili is the first stop, renowned all over the world. This is a picturesque market dating back many centuries, with narrow alleys and very colorful shops. You will find everything here, from traditional clothing and handcrafted jewelry to spices, perfume, and souvenir items. Your guide will help you navigate the calls from merchants at many shops for authentic bargains. This is the place to buy gifts that the people of Egypt will value, and feel the buzz of Cairo's ancient trading center.

Then off you go to more modern locations, such as handicraft centers and perfume or papyrus institutes, where you will witness the craft of these products and buy certified, high-quality articles. Lunch will also give you a break, where you can refresh yourself with tasty Egyptian food in a local restaurant. After such a busy shopping day, you will be well transported back to your hotel with memories and treasures from the vibrant markets of Cairo.

Itinerary

Shopping tour and excursion in Cairo

The Cairo Shopping Day Tour begins with your friendly guide welcoming you in your hotel lobby before embarking on a vivacious sojourn through Cairo's most important shopping spots. Begin your day amid Cairo downtown markets bustling with life while looking through diverse clothing items, leather goods, and local food shops. Rejuvenate with a taste of traditional sugarcane juice before heading to historic Bab Zuwayla, one of the last remaining gates of Fatimid Cairo, to taste the charm of Cairo's old neighborhoods.

The walking tour continues through the atmospheric Khayamiya Market and El Ghorija, where colorful textiles and traditional crafts abound. You'll walk along El Moez Street, lined with some of Cairo's oldest and most beautiful streets, Islamic architecture, and cultural landmarks. Make sure to stop for that all-important picture at the Al Azhar Mosque and Al Hussein Mosque before resting at the famous El Fishawy Café in Khan El Khalili Bazaar. Enjoy traditional mint tea and soak in the energetic atmosphere of one of the oldest cafes in the Middle East.

Now move to the far northern gates of old Cairo, Bab al-Futuh, and Bab el-Nasr, where the medieval history of the city peeks in. The last stop on this tour is El Mosky Market, a fast-moving and diverse area where locals shop for everyday essentials and unique goodies alike. This market has everything from souvenirs to spices. It has been an idyllic day of exploration, shopping.
