When having a layover in Cairo join an unforgettable Giza Pyramids Stopover Tour to maximize your time at this amazing site. You can become part of Cairo Top Tours during a short day journey to witness one of humanity's global wonders. Your adventure into ancient Egypt starts the instant you exit the plane because our field specialists deliver a complete and educational journey to uncover its extraordinary heritage.

Among all Giza sites, the enigmatic Great Sphinx stands as the unmissable limestone beast which combines a pharaoh's face with a lion's body. As part of Khafre's ensemble the Valley Temple provides insights regarding the societal practices of mummification and religious rituals that took place 4000 years ago. A camel ride tour of the pyramids lets you experience panoramas with unmatched views that create beautiful photo captures of these ancient masterpieces.

With our brief layover tours in Cairo, you can experience Egypt's greatest landmarks despite your limited time. During the Fourth Dynasty of the Old Kingdom (2613 to 2494 BCE), the Giza Pyramids became eternal national treasures that represent Egypt's abundant historical legacy. We guarantee a thrilling journey followed by comfortable airport transportation during your brief period of stay with us.

Transit tour with stopover in Cairo

The stopover tour of Cairo leads to an exceptional discovery opportunity of ancient Egyptian historical sites. An accredited tour leader among the first people to welcome you will provide complete support after you arrive at Cairo International Airport. At the Giza Plateau, you will see the Great Pyramid of Khufu which represents the only remaining Wonder of the Ancient World. Customers traveling with the tour will enjoy picturesque views during stops at Khafre's Pyramids and Menkaure's structures. The Great Sphinx guards a generated site with its pharaonic facial features mounted above a leonine body. Among the museum's collection of 120,000 artifacts stand the entire ensemble of King Tutankhamun's golden valuables.

Start your day with meals at a local dining place, followed by Islamic Cairo sightseeing before leaving. Experience Khan El Khalili Bazaar's historic El Fishawy Café by enjoying tea while browsing the medieval mosques and minarets, and domes along El Moez Street.
