The Giza Pyramids Quad Biking Desert Safari is a unique adrenaline-filled adventure that offers an opportunity to appreciate one of the world's most revered monuments. This tour represents the union between ancient history and exciting times in the desert on quad bikes. After a quick safety brief and basic instructions, you will mount your quad bike and begin exploring the golden sands surrounding the legendary pyramids.

Feel it as you drive quad bikes across the desert land with the endless view of the Great Pyramids of Giza, the Sphinx, and the faraway skyline of Cairo. No matter if you are racing across the dunes or stopping for classic photographs, this environment of collections of ancient wonders versus that of modern adventure is one that you will never forget. Let the guide lead you through the safest and fastest routes for an exhilarating experience.

This tour would suit adventurous couples, friends, or families that are keen on adding a reign of excitement to their visit to Giza. Departing at varying times, the most sought-after being sunrise and sunset, enjoy the desert light dramatically illuminating the pyramids in shades of gold. After refreshments and a lifetime of memories, it is time for the ride back to your hotel or other escort.

Quad Biking around Giza Pyramids

Conveniently enjoy your Giza Pyramids Quad Biking Desert Safari at any time from your hotel pickup in Cairo or Giza. The representative from Cairo Top Tours takes you for your ride at the quad biking center, where you will meet your friendly Bedouin desert guide. After a short safety briefing and instructions on how to properly handle your all-terrain vehicle, you will prepare for a thrilling ride through the desert. Whether you take to the sands on a quad bike, beach buggy, or dune buggy, this amazing one-hour ride opens up the vast sands that cradle the world-famous Giza Pyramids-Chiops (Khufu), Chephren, and Mycerinus-best viewed from a distance.

Your guide will show you the best spots to take pictures in front of golden dunes with pyramids in the background. Let the stunning scenery sink in and feel the adrenaline rush as you speed across the landscape to some of the most exciting experiences in Cairo. Short break after the ride for some rest, rehydration, and refreshment before heading back to the quad center, where you will be given some time to clean up and think back over your adventure, before being comfortably transferred back to your hotel, leaving you with wonderful memories and photos of this great journey.
