Explore the soul of Islamic Cairo in the El-Moez Street Day Tour from Cairo Airport which harmoniously blends history with culture and gives way to innumerable architectural wonders. Upon arrival, you will meet your guide and head off to El-Moez Street, one of Cairo's older and most important streets graced by beautiful medieval Islamic monuments. Stroll along this open-air museum and appreciate the details in the facades of the ancient mosques, madrasas, and palaces whispering the tales of Egypt's glorious past.

Visit the beautiful Al-Hakim Mosque, admire the exquisitely decorated Sultan Qalawun Complex, and gaze at the stunningly intricate designs in Bayt Al-Suhaymi, yet another jewel from the Ottoman period. Stroll through the busy Khan El Khalili Bazaar, where you can buy traditional souvenirs, handcrafted jewelry, and aromatic spices in a raging marketplace. Having immersed yourself in the colorful atmosphere, take a sip of authentic Egyptian tea in a local café while watching the day-to-day life unfold in Cairo's historic quarter.

As the sun sets, enjoy the magical view down this illuminated street while marveling at the beauty of Cairo in the twilight; get yourself an Egyptian dinner in a local restaurant; then be transferred to the airport to catch your departing flight. On layover or with one day free in Cairo, this tour promises an interest-filled taster of the city's rich heritage and everlasting charm.

Itinerary

El-Moez Street from Airport Tour

Meet your guide at Cairo Airport and head straight to El-Moez Street, one of the most historic and picturesque streets in Old Cairo. As you walk along the street, admire the beautiful Islamic architecture in its well-preserved mosques, madrasas, and sails, which all date back to the Fatimid and Mamluk eras. Then visit the greatest mosque of all, Al-Hakim Mosque, with its gigantic minarets, and enter the magnificent Qalawun Complex, a masterpiece of medieval Islamic design.

Continue touring with Beit El-Suhaimi, a fully renovated Ottoman-style house, bringing you closer to what traditional Egyptian life could look like. Visit the frenetic Khan El-Khalili Bazaar around which to stack your bags with real memorandums, spices, jewelry, and authentic textiles. Then, have some delicious Egyptian lunch from any local restaurant, enjoying koshari, fried meats, or fresh homemade baladi bread in the atmospherics of Old Cairo.

While your tour may have ended, you can walk leisurely to the long amenity balconies of what would be a well-lit El-Moez Street at night and then its hustle and bustle of the crowd. If time allows, have some time for a cup of traditional Egyptian tea or coffee at one of the historic cafés before heading back to Cairo Airport for your departure. In the end, when the day tour concludes and gives memorable events of rich heritage and cultural treasures, return to the airport through a comfortable transfer.
