View the beloved sites of Cairo with a glance at those dazzling streets. The Cairo Tower is quite magnificent 187 meters in height, which is the hotspot in the highest skyline of Gezira Island, and you have a semi-circular 360-degree view of the beauty from the angle of Cairo Tower. Designed in the 1960s, its pivotal inspiration was a lotus flower reflecting rich Egyptian culture with ancient history characterizing the center of great art architecture. It has now carried forward these concepts: architecture and national pride. Fasten seat belts and get ready for an amazing journey while the elevator shoots you to the top.

Feel at home with an amazing and breathtaking view of many key sites, including the Pyramids, River Nile, Salah El-Din Castle or Citadel, and the considerable grayness of the city. This is how you can spend a day under a clear sky that is extended or on patrols in the evening hours when the lights atop the bedrooms look like fireflies. Try your hand at dinner for dinner at the revolving restaurant, with its ever-changing views across the city, where you can enjoy Egyptian grub or the international menu.

The Cairo Tower Tour fits photographers, history lovers, and tourists searching for something lovely to look at from above. A day out for him is an obligatory ensemble on the Cairo tour. Have the excellent opportunity to appreciate the 360° view of the city as you go up to the observation deck: the Nile River and the major landmarks at the center of the pyramids of Giza, Salah El-Din Citadel, and Al-Azhar Mosque. The information from your guide about the history of this tower-the design details from the pharaonic spirit and symbolizing modern Egypt is also very captivating. Remember, take the best picture while having the chance to savor hot tea at the rotating restaurant, creating once-in-a-lifetime food-and-city view memories.

Whenever everything is over, go down to Zamalek, one of the most vital parts of Cairo with abundant greenery, having excellent art galleries and good historic architecture. If time remains, you stop off in the area around the Opera House or other cultural attractions before bringing an end to your tour back to the hotel or airport. This tour is great for tourists as it is only half day but includes all the major important structures in Cairo and offers travelers a mix of culture, history, and nature.
