Giza Pyramids and Old Cairo Trip-The magical journey through the past ancient wonders and savory history living has begun. Your journey begins with the mind-boggling Giza Plateau where the world-renowned Pyramids of Giza are located-the only surviving wonder from the ancient world. It is in awe when you check out the Great Pyramid of Khufu, Pyramid of Khafre, and Pyramid of Menkaure as evidence of glorious Egypt's past. Witness the majestic Sphinx, which holds the body of a lion with a human face as it guards the pyramids for thousands of years. Capture stunning shots of these monumental buildings and listen to your expert guide about their fascinating construction and purposes.

After the pyramids, head to what could be termed Old Cairo. This historical and spiritual neighborhood has very narrow streets, some of which surely lead to one of the most important religious sites, such as the Hanging Church, a splendid Coptic Christian museum from the 3rd century. Visit the historical Ben Ezra Synagogue, which is even said to be where baby Moses was found, and troop to the Amr Ibn Al-As Mosque, the very first mosque built in Egypt. They all draw a different layer of the vast profile of the cultural and religious diversity of Cairo.

At last, you finish your tour by visiting Khan El Khalili, which is the liveliest and most energetic area of Cairo. This ancient market is full of handcrafts, souvenirs, and aromatic spices. Walk through its lively alleys, chat with its friendly vendors, and experience firsthand the characteristic charm of Cairo's trading culture whether gazing upon ancient monuments or lapping up the energetic atmosphere of the bazaar, Giza Pyramids and Old Cairo Tour promise unforgettable memories. Just a remarkable day combining history and culture with adventure.

Itinerary

Giza Pyramids, Ibn Tulun Mosque and Gayer Anderson Museum Tour

Your Private Tour of the Cairo Pyramids, Ibn Tulun Mosque, and Gayer Anderson Museum commences with a visit to the renowned Pyramids of Giza. Here, you shall witness the awe-inspiring Great Pyramid of Khufu, as well as the Pyramid of Khafre and the Pyramid of Menkaure. You will marvel at all these ancient wonders' architectural brilliance and capture stunning images of the legendary guardian of the pyramids, the Sphinx. As you marvel at this wonder, your expert guide will enlighten you on the history and secrets surrounding these monuments, giving you a deeper understanding of Egypt's glorious past.

Continue next to Ibn Tulun Mosque, arguably the largest mosque to be found in Cairo, which is also among the oldest and most beautiful, having been founded in the 9th century. Behold its exceptional architectural design, which includes a very spacious courtyard as well as an exceptionally beautiful and all-twisted spiral minaret inspired by Mesopotamian styles. Thus, this ancient mosque grants visitors an escape from a busy and noisy life while allowing them to catch a glimpse of Muslim Cairo's artistic and cultural heritage. If you feel strong enough to climb the lovely minaret, you will achieve the majestic view of the city from atop, quite the experience of that everlasting magic called Cairo.

The tour ends in the curious Gayer Anderson Museum, a secret world set right next to the mosque. The beautifully preserved 17th-century mansion housed the British officer and collector Gayer Anderson and boasts splendid collections of Islamic art, antique furniture, and historical artifacts. Roam through the beautifully decorated rooms and courtyards, which are filled with treasures telling Egypt's many cultural influences. After soaking in the history and beauty of the amazing sites, your private tour will finally end with a comfortable transfer back to your hotel, leaving you with unforgettable memories regarding the architectural wonders and historical legacy of Cairo.
