An opportunity to relish an action-packed adventure and a dash of ancient history on this Safari Day Tour to the Pyramids by air from Hurghada! Your exciting journey begins with an early morning pick-up from your hotel, followed by a short domestic flight to Cairo. You are met by the expert guide who escorts you to the Giza Plateau to experience its grandeur. Be awestruck at the tallest of the pyramids built by Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure and learn about their construction and history. A visit to the monumental Sphinx further embellishes the memory of stepping into ancient Egypt.

The next stage of your journey will be a desert safari around the pyramids. Your adrenaline goes up faster as you hop on your 4-wheel drive or quad bike (depending on availability and preference) and race through the golden dunes of the Sahara, before making rugged turns with stunning views of the pyramids in the background. This is an exhilarating yet charming mix of adrenaline and sightseeing designed for those who want an unusual spin to their cultural exploration.

For a recharge, being served Egyptian lunch in a restaurant overlooking the desert is ideal. You can also take this time to tour the bazaar for souvenirs or just to sit back and mull over your experiences. Later, those who will transfer back to Cairo airport will be welcomed for their return flight to Hurghada.
