From above and below, the Luxor West Bank Tour with Hot Air Balloon offers a day brimming with enchantment, history, and unforgettable panoramas. The adventure starts at first light with a hot-air-balloon flight over the West Bank of Luxor. As the sun rose, you would have floated silently above the Valley of the Kings, Hatshepsut's Temple, the fertile Nile-side villages, and witnessed the comprehensive awakening of the landscape in golden rays, a divine and rare perspective on this ancient land worthy of memory for a lifetime.

Following your sojourn in the skies is a tour on the ground escorted by an expert through the West Bank of Luxor, home to some of the greatest archaeological treasures in Egypt. Traverse the same paths that pharaohs once followed as you visit the tombs of the Valley of the Kings, gaze upon Queen Hatshepsut's mortuary temple carved into the cliffs, and stand in awe before the towering Colossi of Memnon. Your guide will enliven these places with gripping narratives, historical background, and little-known facts.

The day ends with a delicious lunch, preventing you from letting memories dwindle, served at a restaurant filled with views of the Nile and landscapes surrounding it. Carefully balanced between the exhilaration of floating high above ancient wonders and the deeper immersion into culture via guided floor explorations, Luxor West Bank with a Hot-Air Balloon is more than just a journey through the past—it is an arresting encounter with the heart and soul of living ancient Egypt.
