Join us on this rare trip to the Ras Mohamed Snorkeling and Bedouin Party Tour very adventurous tour. It has everything; nature, culture, and undoubtedly relaxation. The beginning of the journey is at Ras Mohamed National Park, which is among Egypt's most attractive national marine parks. Here you have an opportunity to cruise in the pure water of the Red Sea, known for its breathtaking coral reefs, diverse underwater life, and swimming with strange fish. Here you immerse yourself in some of the most incredible underwater scenery and decimate the last line of the World's Leading Snorkel Destinations.

As soon as this part of exploring the sea is complete, it's time for the Sinai Desert, where magic continues: an adventurous experience. The warm, welcoming Bedouin culture would leave one breathless, taking in a whiff of their revered traditions while partaking in genuine, brewed tea, savoring the fine food freshly cooked by the Bedouins, and basking in the art of mesmerizing bread-making. The setting sun bodes the coming of a fairy tale under the desert sky, as the golden glow casts silvery warmth over a jovial entertainment basking in hospitality.

This is the life of a Bedouin Party, the traditional music, rhythmic drumming, and the magic of belly dancing fusion. Relax and recline by the campfire under a sky full of stars-all this while your ears enjoy the sound of the calm desert. For the adventure chaser, a camel ride will provide an exceptional view of the endless dunes.

This trip is a perfect blend of aquatic thrills, culture, and the beauty of silence in the desert experience one would treasure all their lifetime in Egypt.

Ras Mohamed Snorkeling, Shopping, and Bedouin Party Sharm El Sheikh

This day starts early in the morning with a pickup from the hotel in Sharm El Sheikh to Ras Mohamed National Park, which happens to be one of the premier snorkeling locations in the world. On reaching Ras Mohamed, you'll be issued your snorkeling equipment and briefed on how to use it safely for a dive into the crystalline waters of the Red Sea. The underground world of colorful coral reefs is full of exotic marine life such as fish, sea turtles, and even the occasional dolphin. Swim through breathtaking underwater landscapes and bask on pure sandy beaches relaxing while indulging in the beauty of a protected marine paradise.

After an exciting morning in the water, you then return to Sharm El Sheikh for some leisurely shopping. From local markets to modern shopping centers, Sharm El Sheikh has everything you need: a walk into the local shops and modern shopping centers will allow you to view some popular Egyptian souvenirs, handcrafted jewelry, perfumes and spices, and goods made in the traditional Bedouin way. Take all the time you can in the bustling bazaars practicing your bargaining and finding those unique gifts or keepsakes. End your shopping spree with a delectable lunch in one of the local restaurants to savor authentic Egyptian cuisine before preparing for another thirst-quenching adventure.

When the sun starts to set in the evening hours, you carry your journey into the heart of the Sinai Desert for that perfect experience of Bedouin Life experience. This includes an inviting welcome from what is known as the spent hours of touting with Bedouin tea and traditional hospitality, followed by fresh cooking to dinner below the open skies. Witness magical performances such as belly dancing, fire shows, and live musical performances while sitting around an evergreen campfire. Another adventure is riding a camel around the golden sands or stargazing through a telescope to appreciate the fantastic desert sky. Your unforgettable evening ends with transferring back to the hotel, to create lasting memories for the one-day tour.
