Safari Pyramids tour from Sharm El-Sheikh

When you land at Cairo International Airport, your excursion begins with a comfortable transfer to the legendary Giza Pyramid Complex. Upon arrival, you'll hop on a quad bike and head out into the desert for an exhilarating ride around the Pyramids of Cheops, Chephren, and Mykerinus. Racing over the dunes, you'll get panoramic views of the pyramids and the desert landscape, up close to the size of these monuments of the past. After your thrilling quad bike tour, stop at a local desert village that few visitors have the chance to experience, where you'll be welcomed with a cup of traditional Egyptian tea and have an opportunity to sit and refresh with bottled water or a cold drink.

You'll then switch to an even older mode of transport—a camel ride—to visit the desert at a more leisurely pace, with time to take in the subtle beauty of the landscape. As you stroll in the vicinity of the Great Sphinx of Giza, your guide will share fun facts about the history and significance of these ancient monuments. After a day filled with adventure and discovery, you'll be transferred back to Cairo International Airport, concluding your memorable tour of Egypt's most iconic landmarks.
