Day Trip
Egypt
Cairo

An extraordinary journey commences: from the port of Alexandria onto Egypt's Grand Egyptian Museum and certainly onto the Pyramids of Giza. Beyond sightseeing, this journey threads through Egypt's fascinating history through history, cultures, and adventure.

The Grand Egyptian Museum is to be worked on from the interiors filled with ancient treasures. The first place to hit upon is the Grand Egyptian Museum. This quote would soon be known as the world's largest archaeological museum dedicated to ancient Egypt bordering upon the Pyramids of Giza. The modern museum houses one of the most fantastic assemblages of artifacts, including the entire treasure collection of King Tutankhamun. Make use of a great amount of space within the museum while admiring the well-preserved relics, statues, and historical exhibits that give life to the glorious past of Egypt.

Enter the legendary pyramids of Giza

Then off to the Pyramids of Giza: one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Stand in front of the Great Pyramid of Khufu, made to be the biggest and oldest of the three, and hear on how it was constructed, and its history. Then visit the pyramids of Khafre and Menkaure, and you will be grateful to catch a glimpse of the royal legacy of Egypt.

After all, no trip to the pyramids would be complete without a visit to, The Great Sphinx, the limestone statue that has the head of a pharaoh and the body of a lion. Take pictures and learn the myths and legends that surround this historic monument.

Grand Egyptian Museum and Giza Pyramids Tour from Alexandria Port

Arrival & Departure from Alexandria Port

Your journey will officially start when you step off from your cruise ship at Alexandria Port, where our guide will welcome you. After a brief introduction, you will board a comfortable and air-conditioned vehicle, taking you on a scenic road trip to Cairo. The whole travel takes about 3 hours, including pit-stop to stretch and refresh.

Visit the Grand Egyptian Museum

You will then head for the Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM), which is going to be your first stop as soon as you set foot in Cairo. This is a global-class exhibition space that encapsulates Egypt's most treasured artifacts - a gigantic set of halls that house priceless relics, including the complete assemblage of King Tutankhamun, the first time being displayed together. Towering statues, ancient jewelry, and many more, create interactive exhibits to bring life to Egypt's beautiful past. Your guide narrates the significance of these phenomenal relics.

Dining While Watching

At the end of the visit to the museum, relish a nice meal in a local restaurant with fantastic scenery of the Giza Pyramids. Traditional Egyptian food, vegetarian, and special dietary requests are available upon advanced notice.

The Sphinx and Giza Pyramids

From here, the journey will continue to what now is the famous Giza Plateau for such monuments in Egypt. Placed in front of you are the magnificent Great Pyramid of Khufu and those of Khafre and Menkaure. Learn about incredible engineering and legends surrounding their construction. If you're feeling adventurous, you can enter one of the pyramids (optional ticket required).

A short walk brings you to the Great Sphinx, the mysterious limestone statue with a lion's body and a pharaoh's face. Take amazing photos and hear the intriguing stories behind it.

Optional Experiences

Camel Ride: Imagine the thrill of galloping across the barren sand on a camel with the pyramids silhouetted against the sunset behind you.

Panoramas: Visit a panoramic viewpoint where you'll get an awesome full view of the pyramids.

Back to Alexandria Port

As the proverbial best of party begins to come to a close, you will be in the car going back to Alexandria Port, where you will be just in time to get to your cruise again, having wonderful memories of Egypt's most famous landmarks.
