Explore Islamic Cairo from Port Said with Drop-off in Alexandria

Morning: Departure from Port Said

We will pick you up from your lodgings or cruise ship in Port Said and begin your adventure with us. From there onwards, you will comfortably sit in a modern air-conditioned vehicle, driving to Cairo. Qualified tour guide will join you during the trip to tell you much about the rich Islamic history in Egypt and what makes this tour so special along the way.

Arrive in Cairo: Discover the Core of Islamic Cairo

And your first port of call in Cairo will be Sultan Hassan Mosque. It stands as an unparalleled example of Mamluk architecture. Enjoy the more minute details and gargantuan courtyards of the mosque and learn their historical significance in the Islamic era of Egypt. Your guide will give you insight into the architectural style and the rich religious history associated with this site.

Visit Al-Azhar Mosque and University

Later head to another crucial and well-known site, the major Islamic education institution-Al Azhar Mosque. Know why this fantastic building is what the mosque offers to Islamic scholarship. In fact, the historical background of the mosque makes it highly significant in understanding the spiritual evolution of Egypt.

Lunch Break in Cairo

After visiting these lovely sites, you can now have a traditional Egyptian lunch in Cairo at any local restaurant. One would experience some popular Egyptian dishes such as molokhiya, kofta, or shawarma. This is great to taste the flavours of Cairo casually.

Travel through the Majestic Ibn Tulun Mosque

Then, after lunch, you will head to Ibn Tulun Mosque, the oldest mosque of Cairo. It is well known for its special architectural features, such as a gigantic courtyard and a spiral minaret. Your guide will talk to you about its history and mention how important it is in the process of Islamic architecture evolution in Egypt.

Khan El Khalili Bazaar: Experience Cairo's Oldest Market

After that, enjoy a beautiful walk navigating through the world-famous Khan El Khalili Bazaar-it's an uplift market that was set up in the 14th century. The market sells a wide variety of products available in traditional Egyptian goods, ranging from spices and perfumes to jewelry and textiles. Here one has the opportunity of relieving all the shopping pressures and simply enjoys the lively atmosphere.

Drive to Alexandria

A day that is tiring but enriching will make the scenic drive through hills and dales to Alexandria worth it, and your guide will collect you for it. Then, one would have to sit comfortably on the car seats and treasure every illusion of the day's wonderment.

Drop-off in Alexandria

That's it! The tour ends at the drop-off point of your choice in Alexandria. What will you do next, then? Off to your hotel or to a local place of interest? Your guide will see to it that you arrive in safety and comfort after a glorious day of sightseeing.
