1 Day Trip
Egypt
Ismailia

Take pleasure in the sight of one of the governorate's actively sought tourist places by making a visit to the promenade of Egypt Square. From here, you can see the flowing ships as well as the unique atmosphere of the region because it has a clear line of sight to the northern entrance of the Suez Canal.

Due to its modern city planning which includes walking and family resting areas, the path of this promenade is ideal for families and people looking for a peaceful environment with unusual sights.

The Suez Canal, since as far back as ancient times, has been the setting for many notable occurrences. The canal was constructed over a period of ten years and was opened in the year 1869 during the reign of Khedive Ismail Pasha. To learn about the rest of these events, use our guide which is written in English.

Waaayyy! Our trips to Ain Sohna are the most exciting don't miss it! Due to its clean waters, it has become alot more popular as a holiday destination throughout the year. Tour to Suez Canal

At 8:00 a.m., our representative will greet you and introduce you to our guide who will lead you on an exciting and historic journey... The first stop will be your arrival in Ismailia, a beautiful and peaceful governorate of Egypt.

When the foundation stone for the city of Timsah was placed on April 27, 1862, during the reign of Said Pasha, Ismailia was formally formed. Because of its location north of Lake Timsah, it was given this name. The French Canal Company hosted a large event on March 4, 1863.

The first concession and following concession decrees, the first axe strike in the drilling operations, the conclusion of the drilling operations (August 18, 1869), and the inauguration ceremony on November 17, 1869, constitute the true history of the Suez Canal.

Enjoy a nutrient-packed fish and seafood meal after which you will be transferred to your hotel in Cairo.
