Trip in Pyramids, Ride Camel or Horse

To complete your experience in the Pyramids, there are many activities you can do to live in the center of this historic landmark. Horse Riding at the Pyramids, we will direct you best to head to the village stables (next to the Sphinx car park), the best time to go horse or camel riding in the Pyramids area is at sunset, where you can head to the surrounding desert to enjoy the archaeological sights as the sun sets.

In these times, you experience the tranquility of the desert as though you are a part of this magnificent scenery. In addition to learning about Bedouin customs and culture, you may capture wonderful pictures as souvenirs and take in the stunning surroundings. Your memories will be permanently altered by this remarkable encounter.

The sound and light show at the Pyramids of Giza will see these ancient monuments illuminated under the night sky with a narrative soundtrack provided by the Sphinx, the history of the ancient Egyptian civilization and an enjoyable dinner with friends or family will make it all the more enjoyable.
