Day 2: Pyramids and Sakkara Tour

Breakfast at your hotel ends with the arrival of your guide, who will lead the Cairo sightseeing tour.

You will begin your adventure at this global ancient site to see the Great Pyramid, and this historical structure stands as one of the seven ancient architectural marvels that remain today. Aside from the Great Pyramid, you will see two ruler pyramids, the statue with a lion body and human head, and the temple where royal ceremonies took place.

Travellers will then visit an ancient necropolis where they can see a stepped pyramid that scientists identify as the first massive stone structure ever built. The renowned pharaoh commissioned an exceptional architect to create this site, which reveals crucial revelations regarding the development of pyramidal design. A remarkable burial chamber allows visitors to enter while they can browse through the tombs of high-ranking officials to see elaborate inscriptions showing interesting information about ancient Egyptian daily life.

You will visit the open-air museum following lunch at a recommended local establishment that features a single massive stone sphinx alongside the collapsed monumental statue of a powerful historical pharaoh.

You will conclude your day at the hotel where you will spend an overnight stay in Cairo.
