Itinerary

Day 1 Friday: Check-in - High Dam - Philae Temple

Your professional tour guide will transfer you to the MS Nile Dolphin Nile cruise, one of our Egypt Nile Cruise Tours, to board before and start your Aswan day tours as follows:

Aswan Dam:

Before sailing, you will visit the Aswan High Dam which was built in 1960 to shield Egypt from the excessive floods occurring annually, in addition to providing the required electricity that suits a big country like Egypt.

Temple of Isis:

Resume Aswan excursions as you will visit Philae Temple and its astounding pillars and engravings which have been saved for thousands of years to tell us the story of Horus and Osiris and more about how great and advanced our fathers were. It was considered an important ancient center for the cult of Isis.

The Unfinished Obelisk:

Your Aswan to Luxor Nile Cruise extends to the granite quarries in Aswan to see the biggest obelisk in the world that is famous by the name the Unfinished Obelisk, because the work was never finished and the obelisk was never used, Egyptologists believe that it was made by Queen Hatshepsut. You will be transferred to the Nile River Cruise. lunch and dinner will be served aboard your MS Nile Dolphin Nile Cruise. Meals: Lunch, Dinner

Day 2: Kom Ombo Temple - Sailing to Edfu

Take your tasty breakfast onboard your Egypt Nile River Cruise. After that, we will sail to Kom Ombo to continue one of the most unusual Egypt Day Tours visit Kom Ombo Temple it was built during the Ptolemaic Kingdom in Egypt for God Sobek the crocodile formed Deity from one entrance, the other entrance devoted to Haroeris with its falcon head, In the temple, you can visit the chapel of Sobek, and you will see some very well preserved crocodile mummies. After your interesting tour to Kom Ombo, your lunch and dinner will be served on board while sailing to Edfu and overnight. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3: Edfu Temple - Karnak Temple - Luxor Temple

Enjoy an early go-to buffet breakfast at the start of your day on the cruise. You will also visit the Temple of Horus at Edfu, which is known for its excellent preservation. The temple was raised in the Ptolemaic era and is dedicated to Horus, the god who takes falcon form.

After finishing at Edfu, the boat moves to Esna and finally heads to Luxor. Visitors to Luxor have the chance to see two of the greatest sites in Egypt, the Karnak Temple and the Luxor Temple.

You will be served lunch and dinner on the boat while you journey along the Nile. Late in the day, you have the opportunity to appreciate the illuminated and dramatic light show at Karnak Temple.

I have breakfast, lunch, and dinner each day.

Day 4: Valley of the Kings - Hatshepsut Temple - Colossi of Memnon

Local companies provide optional trips in Luxor, where you can take a hot air balloon tour very early in the morning.

After finishing breakfast, you will check out of the cruise ship and head with your guide to Luxor for a tour. See the Valley of the Kings, an incredible site in Luxor. Many consider the Valley of the Kings to be among Egypt's most famous sites of the past. The kings of the New Kingdom, as well as King Tutankhamen himself, were buried there.

Make sure to see the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, also called El Deir El Bahari. She ruled as the fifth pharaoh of Egypt's 18th dynasty and was one of the few women to do so. The Colossi of Memnon, two giant limestone statues of Pharaoh Amenhotep III, also stand here.

We will drop you off at either Luxor Airport or the train station before you leave.

We hope you enjoyed your cruise on the Nile from Aswan to Luxor aboard our MS Nile Dolphin.
