Cairo Half-Day Tour to NMEC and Felucca Ride

the excursion begins at 9:00 am with hotel pickup in Cairo or Giza Your half-day excursion will begin with a visit to The National Museum of Egyptian Civilization. The four primary crafts that created Egyptian civilization are displayed in the main exhibition hall: pottery, wood, textiles, and decorations.

There, you can see the oldest prosthetic toe in the entire world, a man's skeleton that dates back 30.000 years, the Kaaba Cover (kiswaa Al Kaaba), the last item made in Egypt under President Naser, and the Mahmal, which used to annually carry the cover in a grand procession from Egypt to Saudi Arabia.

The National Egyptian Civilization Museum It is regarded as the first museum in the entire world to present a thorough overview of Egyptian Civilization throughout its history, from prehistory to current times.

NMEC displays a number of artifacts to demonstrate to visitors the evolution of Egyptian civilization over time, beginning with the predynastic and Ancient Egyptian periods and continuing through the Greco-Roman, Coptic, Islamic, and contemporary periods. Additionally, you may view the Kaaba key and the Clepsydra, an antiquity timepiece.

And without a doubt, you'll view every single one of the royal mummy that was transferred in a royal procession from the Egyptian museum to the civilization museum.

The traditional Felucca boat used in Egypt Take a leisurely Felucca cruise along the Nile, where you can see Cairo's incredible nightlife or take in the warm sun throughout the day. Our Representative will bring you back to your hotel after the Cairo trip is over.
