Day 1- Check in & Luxor West Bank Tour

After checking into your hotel, our English-speaking tour guide will take you for a tour of the west bank. The West Bank is a UNESCO World Heritage site and is home to many of Egypt's most famous sites.

First up, Visit the tombs of the Nobles and the Valley of the Kings. You will also get a chance to see Al-Deir Al-Bahari Temple, which is a little bit far from Luxor city center but worth visiting. You can see many statues of Pharaohs here including King Tutankhamun who was discovered buried inside his tomb. Next up is the Temple of Ramesses II, which was constructed during the 19th dynasty as well. The temples are surrounded by an intricate system of canals that were used for irrigation and transportation.

Next, visit the Temple of Hatshepsut, which was built during the 18th dynasty as well as being one of Egypt's earliest examples of female rulership.

Finally, visit the Colossi of Memnon which are two massive statues built by king Amenhotep III to be placed inside his funerary temple at western Thebes which was usurped later by king Mernptah to make his own temple.

After visiting these amazing sites, we will head back to your hotel for dinner and rest overnight.

Day 2- Hot air balloon in the morning and East Bank Tour

In the morning, go for a hot air balloon ride over the Luxor temple.

It's time to explore the east bank of Luxor! Return to your hotel for breakfast before checking out and heading to visit the Karnak Temple Complex which is one of the biggest religious sites in Egypt, with over 20 temples scattered in its vast area. It was built by Pharaoh Amenhotep III, enlarged by Ramses II, and restored by Alexander The Great during his conquest of Egypt. The next stop is the Luxor temple which was built by Hatshepsut and dedicated to Amun-Ra.

After that, you will be transferred back to your hotel or the Luxor Airport to catch your flight home.
