Your private tour guide will meet you upon arrival at Cairo International airport to start your Egypt Day Tours and excursions from Luxor to Cairo.

First, you will be guided to see the Pyramids in Giza, those gigantic structures of king Cheops, also known in the ancient Egyptian language as Khufu, are the oldest and largest of the three pyramids in Giza and considered one of the oldest seven wonders of the world, also the second pyramid built by king Chephren which still retains some ruins of the outer casing material at the top, and the last pyramid built for King Mycerinus, then proceed to see the Great Sphinx which is a mythological creature with the body of a lion and the head of a human to symbolize the power and intelligence of the ancient Egyptian. The tour also covers a visit to the Valley Temple which was dedicated to the opening of the mouth rituals during the mummification of king Chephren.

Then you'll proceed to the Egyptian Museum which contains the largest collection of Egyptian artifacts and sculptures all over the world and the first royal treasure found intact in Luxor, the Treasures of the golden pharaoh Tutankhamen, and then move to visit the old churches like the Hanging Church of the Holy Virgin Mary that was built suspended above two towers of the ancient Roman fortress of Babylon, and the Church of St. Sergius, then visit the oldest synagogue in Coptic Cairo, Ben Ezra Synagogue.

Have your delicious lunch in a good local restaurant in Old Cairo then it's time for the Islamic Cairo trip, you will be accompanied by your private guide to head to Islamic Cairo and spend some time exploring the shops and the different goods as well as the old narrow streets and coffee shops in Khan El-Khalili, the oldest bazaar in the middle east. The market also has a spice market where you can buy fresh spices of any variety.

Finally and at the end of your Egypt Day Tours, you will be transferred to Cairo airport for the flight back to Luxor, where we will meet you and take you back to your hotel in Luxor.
