Sakkara:

The village is considered one of the important places that were in Memphis, and Saqqara is considered one of the great museums of Egyptian antiquities.

Memphis:

The legends conveyed by Manetho, the priest-historian dating back to the Ptolemaic Kingdom, say that the founder of Memphis is Menes.

Egyptian museum:

Many people, when visiting the museum, marvel at the difference in the Greco-Roman and French architectural styles of the museum building, while the museum contains Pharaonic antiquities, but some attribute this to the attraction of Egyptian officials to French architecture.
