Rosetta Day Trip from Alexandria Port

We'll have a tour guide waiting to pick you up when you arrive at Alexandria Port, and we'll take you on a tour of Rosetta city in Egypt.

Once you've arrived in Rosetta City, you'll visit Rashid.

The Rashid Museum is one of the original red and black brick houses in London that houses a replica of the Rosetta Stone. This ancient artifact is in three languages – Demotic, Ancient Greek, and Ancient Pharaonic – and is displayed in the Museum in accordance with its original location in the British Museum.

If you keep visiting the Souq and the local markets, you'll be able to enjoy all the sights and smells of the city while carrying on to the Ottoman homes.

Afterward, you will continue to visit Amasyali's house, which has a very colorful exterior and interior with wooden ceilings and mother-of-pearl wall decorations.

If you visit the Mill of Abu Shaheen, you will be able to see some of the most impressive woodworking equipment in the world. The mill has tall wooden beams and planks, as well as a beautiful courtyard with granite columns supporting the roof.

The Al-Muallaq Mosque is an excellent example of an Ottoman mosque, with its impressive marble columns and colorful tiles. It's a must-see for anyone visiting Istanbul.

Your tour guide will take you on a drive to Qaitbey Citadel, where you can climb to the top to see the impressive views of the Nile and Mediterranean.

Your guide will then take you back to Alexandria, where our service will end.
