Giza pyramids, Memphis, and Saqqara tour with a visit to the papyrus institute

We have a professional tour guide waiting for you at Alexandria port to take you to Cairo in an air-conditioned vehicle.

Upon our arrival, we will be transferred to the Giza pyramids, which are the most iconic structures in the world. Your knowledgeable Egyptologist guide will provide an interesting introduction to each one of the three pyramids- Cheops, Khafre, and Menakaura- from your perspective. This trip will be an unforgettable experience for all who participate.

After viewing the ancient pyramids, you will travel to the plateau to take pictures of the three pyramids emerging from the sand with the Cairo skyline in the backdrop. You may stand at the foot of the Sphinx, Egypt's enigmatic icon for thousands of years, after a brief journey to the city side of the plateau.

The Memphis and Saqqara tour is a great way to see two of Egypt's most iconic archaeological sites up close and learn about the rich history of Egyptian civilization.

Your visit to Memphis will give you a glimpse into the ancient culture of Egypt and the impressive ruins of the palace of Pharaoh Ramses II. You'll also be able to visit the Temple of Ptah, which was once an important temple in all of Egypt.

Next, you'll head to Saqqara, where you'll see the world's first known pyramid. The Step Pyramid of Djoser is an amazing structure, and you'll learn all about its construction and history on the tour. You'll also get to see the tomb of the great pharaoh Tutankhamun, which is one of the most famous archaeological sites in the world.

After exploring Saqqara, you'll visit the Papyrus Institute, where you'll learn about the ancient art of papermaking. You'll also get to see some of the fascinating papyrus scrolls that have been preserved for centuries.
