Your Bedouin guide will take amazing photos while you enjoy a camel ride around Giza Pyramids (optional activity) before moving to see the majestic Sphinx of Giza which is part of the pyramid complex of King Chephren and is believed to be built for the king himself to signify how powerful the king used to be as the lion and as genius as the human with a legendary figure of a lion body and the head of a man.

The Valley Temple of Chephren is also close to the sphinx that was created from the bedrock, this is the place where the mummification of the royal body took place as part of the funeral rituals.

Wander around the area to see the original enclosure walls and the hep-sed court where the king used to renew his sovereignty over the kingdom by the attendance of the nomes rulers to accept him for the next 30 years as their king and semi-god.

You will also have the chance to enter the pyramid of King Teti who ruled Egypt during the 6th dynasty and get fascinated by the tomb of his son-in-law Kagemni, the tomb has random scenes for almost every kind of animal, fish, and bird depicting the daily life hunting scenes carved in perfection in addition to the good preservation for the original colors.
