When you arrive at the hotel in Cairo, upon arrival, you will be greeted with a welcome drink, and afterward, our tour manager will assist you with a quick and easy check-in and review your Egypt Travel Packages itinerary with you just to make sure that all pick-up times are suitable for both of you.

Overnight in a Cairo hotel

Day 2: (Giza Pyramids Tour / Egyptian Museum Tour / Old Cairo Tour)

On the second day of your trip, you will have breakfast at your 5-star hotel, and then you will be taken to see one of the seven wonders of the world.

The Giza Pyramids are some of the world's most amazing wonders. If the blocks of stone from the pyramids were cut into thin slabs, they could build a wall one meter high that would surround all of France.

The Egyptian Museum is a longstanding and respected archaeological institution with a rich history dating back to the early 1800s.

The Old Cairo Tour is an important part of neighborhood history and one of the most important places in Africa. The Amr Ibn Al-Aas Mosque is the first mosque in Africa, and it is also one of the most important mosques in the world. Additionally, the old churches in the neighborhood include the Hanging Church, which is a shrine for all Christians in the world.

then you will be taken back to your hotel to have your overnight.

Meals: breakfast, lunch.

Day 3:(Alexandria / Pompey's Pillar / Citadel of Qaitbay /Kom El Shoqafa / Bibliotheca of Alexandria)

Starting your Alexandria tour from Cairo can be a hassle-free experience with our transfer service. We'll take you to your hotel in a comfortable, air-conditioned vehicle.

If you want to take a break, go to the bathroom or stretch your legs at the next rest area. Then the day can start with a visit to one of our stops.

The only remaining Roman temple pillar stands on a beautiful plateau in the ruins of the Serapeum. It is a beautiful reminder of the great history of Rome.

The Citadel of Qaitbay is a historic building. It is a beautiful structure that is worth seeing.

The catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa are a unique and important remnant of the ancient Egyptian religion. They consist of three layers of tombs and rooms carved into the rock beneath the ground. This is the last large standing structure dedicated to the ancient Egyptian religion, and it is a unique and important source of information about this ancient culture.

The Bibliotheca of Alexandria is a magnificent library with an extensive variety of books and finely crafted designs.

Finally, you'll enjoy a delicious lunch in a high-quality restaurant. Then you'll be transferred back to Cairo and have a break on the way back after enjoying your Alexandria tour.

then have your last overnight in Cairo.

Meals: breakfast, lunch.

Day 4: Free Day

Have a free day in Cairo before you go on board the Nile cruise the next day.

Your tour leader will offer you some optional tours for the day if you like.

as you can have at night while enjoying the sound and light show at the Giza Pyramids.

OR you can enjoy a Nile River Felucca Cruise in Cairo for 2 hours.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 5: (check-in Luxor East Bank tour)

Your day will start with a private car ride to the airport to fly to Luxor. Once you're there, you'll start your visits by visiting the stunning ruins at Luxor International Airport.

The Luxor Temple is a significant site in ancient Egypt, and it is located just south of the Karnak Temple. The Egyptians called it "Ebit Rasit," meaning "the southern sanctuary." This site is popular with tourists, and it is also home to some of the most iconic and historically significant statues in all of Egypt.

The Valley of the Kings is a beautiful, narrow valley that's located on the western bank of the Nile. The Karnak temples are visible from there, and they're about three kilometers away.

Tutankhamun was nine years old when he became the pharaoh of Egypt. His name translates from ancient Egyptian and means "a living image of the god Amun," the great god of ancient Egypt. Tutankhamun lived in a transitional period in the history of ancient Egypt, and he came to Akhenaten, who attempted to unify the gods of ancient Egypt in the image of one god.

If you book now, you'll be transferred to the Nile Cruise and enjoy a delicious dinner.

Day meals: breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 6: (West Bank of Luxor/ Edfu)

On the morning of the 13th day of your Luxury Package tour, you will be taken to visit some of Luxor's most notable sights.

The statue of Memnon, commissioned by King Amenhotep III, is a masterpiece of architectural design, and the ancient funerary temple of King Amenhotep III is a magnificent reminder of his legacy.

The Temple of Hatshepsut is an architecturally unique building that stands out from other Egyptian temples. It is located on open terraces, and the design is different from those found in Thebes on the eastern bank of the Nile.

The Karnak Temple is a renowned tourist destination for its impressive collection of ancient temples.

Lunch and dinner on board are both delicious, and there are plenty of activities to keep you entertained during the evening.

If you'd like to take a hot air balloon ride in Luxor, it's entirely optional.

Overnight aboard the Nile Cruise

Day Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 7: (The temple of Edfu / the temple of Kom Ombo)

In the early morning, our delegate will pick you up in a private AC car to take you to the temple of Edfu. It initially consisted of a pillared hall, two transverse halls, and a room for the Holy of Holies, surrounded by small niches.

We will be traveling to the temple of Kom Ombo. This will be an interesting experience, and we will learn a lot about ancient Egyptian culture.

Ibrahim Suleiman, an archeology expert, has said that important discoveries were made in the city of Kom Ombo, including the discovery of the oldest workshop for making pottery from the Old Kingdom period, which dates back to the period of the Egyptian Fourth Dynasty. This is an important discovery that sheds light on the origins of pyramid buildings.

Have a relaxing lunch while enjoying the scenery on the Nile cruise ship as it sails toward Aswan.

Dinner will be served aboard the ship while you enjoy a show starring the Nubian animals.

overnight in Aswan aboard your deluxe Nile cruise.

Day Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner

Day 8: (Aswan sightseeing)

Starting your day in Aswan will allow you to visit some of the most important monuments in the morning.

The High Dam is a large and impressive structure on the Nile River. It is a rubble dam, which means that the dam is made of broken pieces of rock and other materials. The height of the dam is 111 meters above the level of the bottom of the Nile River, and its width at the top is 40 meters. The dam is a vital part of the Egyptian water supply, and it helps to keep the river stable and navigable.

The unfinished Obelisk is an important architectural monument from ancient Egyptian civilization.

This new location is much more suitable for worshipping the goddess, as it is near the river and on an island.

Enjoy a delicious dinner and a comfortable overnight stay aboard our ship.

Day Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner

Day 9: (Disembarkation - Going back to Cairo)

In the early morning, you will be able to take your final sightseeing trip to Aswan. You will be transferred to visit.

The mighty Abu Simbel temples are a spectacular sight and remain one of Egypt's most popular tourist destinations. With their intricate carvings and stunning architecture, these temples are a reminder of the great artistry of ancient Egypt.

The Great Temple of Abu Simbel is one of the most beautiful and impressive ancient Egyptian monuments. It was built by powerful King Ramses II of the Nineteenth Dynasty and was destroyed a few centuries later by one of his own subjects. But even after its destruction, the temple still retained its impressive beauty.

On the last day of your Egypt Nile Cruise Tours, you will enjoy a delicious breakfast, then depart from the cruise ship and be transferred to Aswan Airport to take your return flight back to Cairo. Upon arrival, you will be taken to catch your flight from Cairo Airport to Amman.

Day meals: breakfast.

Day 10: (Nebo Mount / Dead Sea)

After breakfast, you will be taken by air-conditioned car to visit

Nebo Mount is named after the god Naba, and the city of Nebo was established there, which fought many wars and battles that were inscribed on the obelisk of King Mesha, King of Moab. This is why the city was abandoned and the people fled there, and it remained that way until the fourth century AD when a Christian Bedouin tribe built a church there and resided there.

The Dead Sea is one of the most famous and beautiful places in the world. It's a closed salt lake located in the Jordan Valley, and it's famous for being the lowest point on the surface of the earth. It's also a beautiful place to visit, with crystal-clear water and stunning sand beaches.

then you will be taken back to have an overnight.

Day meals: breakfast.

Day 11: (Petra tour)

You will be taken after having breakfast to do your check-in at the Tetra Tree Hotel from the beginning of the day.

Then visit Petra: The Nabataeans are credited with building Petra, but before the Nabataeans lived in this area, a people called the Edomites were in a state of constant hostility with their neighboring countries. The hills around Petra were inhabited by humans from 1200–539 BC.

Have your overnight at Petra.
