Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival Day

Our tour leader will meet you at Cairo Airport and then transfer you to your hotel in a modern, air-conditioned vehicle. Upon arrival, you will be assisted with a smooth check-in.

Relax and stay the night at your hotel, and prepare to start our journey the next day.

Day 2: Pyramids Tour.

On day 2, you will be transferred from your hotel in the morning and begin the day's journey. After you have breakfast, you will be transferred again to continue the journey.

The Giza Pyramids are currently ranked seventh on the list of the world's wonders for their height and great construction.

The Great Sphinx is a beautiful statue of a mythical creature with a lion's body and a human head, carved from limestone. Its original colors are still visible next to one of its ears, which is a testament to its craftsmanship.

The Valley Temple was created during the reign of Pharaoh Sneferu and continued to be built until the end of the Twelfth Dynasty.

In ancient Egyptian history, Memphis was considered the capital of the country during the reign of the Third Dynasty and continued until the Sixth Dynasty. Consequently, Memphis is an important city in Egyptian history.

Then, at the end of your day, you will be transferred all the way back to your hotel.

Day meals: breakfast, lunch.

Day 3: Old Cairo tour.

On the third day, you will visit some of the best places in Cairo. This will start on that day.

The Egyptian Museum is one of the oldest and most renowned archaeological museums in the Middle East. It houses an extensive collection of ancient Egyptian antiquities, from the early days of prehistory to the classical period. This rich trove of history provides a unique and fascinating glimpse into the cultural heritage of one of the world's oldest civilizations.

The Saladin Citadel is a significant historical landmark in Islamic Cairo and one of the oldest military fortresses built in the Middle Ages. It is a valuable source of information about Islamic history and a popular tourist attraction.

You'll also be visiting some of Cairo's most prestigious Islamic and Coptic areas.

Then, at the end of the day, you will be going back to your hotel and staying overnight.

Day meals: breakfast, lunch.

Day 4: Fly to Luxor

On day four, you will be departing early in the morning for Luxor, the city that is steeped in history and culture. After your day visits, you will fly back to your original destination.

The Karnak Temple is an impressive sight, as it houses a diverse group of temples built over a period of 2,134 years.

The Luxor Temple was not oriented along the common east-west axis of most other ancient Egyptian temples but instead aligned with the Karnak Temple, because the Luxor Temple was the main site of one of the most important ancient Egyptian religious ceremonies.

then you will be taken to your hotel to have an overnight.

Day meals: breakfast, lunch.

Day 5: Luxor Tour

You will be able to start your luxury Luxor Day Tour two with a breakfast that will set you up for the rest of your journey.

The eastern valley of the Kings is more renowned than the western valley for its many royal tombs, but the western valley has its own unique and impressive tombs that are still in progress. In fact, the western valley has twenty unfinished tombs that are just starting to form, making it just as noteworthy as the eastern valley.

The Hatshepsut temple is a three-level structure with a row of columns at its end. The top level features an open courtyard, and statues of Hatshepsut in the form of Osiris, the god of the dead, stand in front of it.

Memnon, a statuesque masterpiece of ancient Egyptian art, is a treasured part of our culture. However, because all that remains of King Amenhotep III's magnificent burial temple are these statues themselves, we believe they should be conserved for future generations.

You will be taken back to your hotel for the night.

Day meals: breakfast, lunch.

Day 6: Travel to Hurghada

On day six, you will be taken in the morning after you are done with your breakfast, and after setting up your luggage, you will make your check-out and travel by air-conditioned car to Hurghada.

You'll check in at your hotel and get a good night's sleep.

Day meals: all-inclusive

Day 7: Hurghada Day Tour.

On the seventh day, you're free to visit any destination you want in Hurghada or just relax at your hotel and enjoy the view of the sea.

Day meals: all-inclusive.

Day 8: Free Day Tour

You'll have a free day to explore on our tour, and if you want, we can also offer you some optional tours later on.

Day 9: End of service

On the last day of your trip, we will transfer you all the way to the airport to catch your flight back to Cairo once we reach Cairo International Airport.
