First, you will visit Pompey's Pillar, the only remaining pillar from the Roman temple known anciently as the Serapeum, then you will move to The Citadel of Qaitbay, built by the Mamluk rulers to fortify the Mediterranean seacoast against the Ottomans, on the same spot where Alexandria's ancient lighthouse once stood one of the seven wonders of the ancient world that no longer exist. You will also be surprised by the Bibliotheca of Alexandria. It was not only an important ancient library, but also the Centre of learning and scientific research in the ancient world.
