Day1-Discover Fayoum Oasis

our tour leader pick you up from your Cairo hotel to transfer you to fayoum in a modern and air-conditioned car, Tunis Village is the ideal starting place for your rural journey as it is directly across from the beautiful Lake Qarun. A stroll around the hamlet gives a glimpse of Egyptian agricultural life, the community's renowned pottery studios and schools, and a few companies offering desert safari excursions to the region's stunning vistas.

A must-see in Fayoum is the gorgeous Lake Qarun, which stretches for kilometers down the main road opposite Tunis Village. You can count on getting a lift from someone whenever you see a boat. You'll be assured a peaceful experience as the calm waves gently bounce you up and down after that, Ask to go to Magic Lake by stopping by any of the few safari outfits scattered in Tunis Village. This stunning lake, which is concealed behind enormous sand dunes and changes colour depending on the time of day and year you visit, is simply wonderful. To get there, the tour guide will cram you into a rumbling 44 and drive you 45 minutes into the desert; the off-roading trip is undoubtedly thrilling. When you get to the lake, they will unpack some blankets and Bedouin tea and have delicious lunch for you before strapping you into the sandboard and assisting you as you slide down the dune to the shimmering natural beauty. Next, travel to Wadi Al Rayan, Egypt's biggest natural oasis, where you may explore and snap breathtaking pictures while riding a Felucca.

then we will transfer you to your fayoum hotel to relax and overnight

Day2 - fayoum-cairo

After breakfast, our tour guide will pick you up to go to Wadi El Hitan, often known as the "Valley of the Whales," a mesmerising UNESCO World Heritage site that was once a lake and is now home to millions of years' worth of coastal marine life. Whale fossils that have been kept to a flawless state may be found here, offering proof of the mammal's transformation from a terrestrial animal to a marine one. This breathtaking place is absolutely worth visiting, and we will have lunch in a local restaurant then we will visit The Kom Aushim Museum is a fantastic site to obtain guides for all of Fayoum, so after that we transfer there. In 1974, the Museum was originally constructed. It features relics dating from the Prehistoric to Roman Epochs as well as a painting of Fayoum.

at the next halt Karanis (The Lord's Town) is one of the greatest Greco-Roman towns in the Fayoum. Originally settled in the third century B.C. by the mercenaries of Ptolemy the Second's army. Two temples may be found in the city.

Following that, we'll return you to your Cairo hotel.
