Day 2: Giza Pyramids Tour, Saqqara Necropolis, Memphis City

Today, after having breakfast at the hotel, we will visit one of Egypt's most recognized sites, The Great Pyramids of the Giza Plateau, ten miles south of downtown Cairo on the edge of this metropolitan city. One of the last wonders of the ancient world still standing, with its three Great Pyramids, (Cheops) over 4,000 years old, the oldest and largest of the three. Khafre (Chephren) is the only one that still has the top covered with the original stone, and Menkaura (Mycerinus) is the smallest. Although it is not for everyone the entrance to the Pyramids can be arranged at an additional cost.

At the foot of the Great Pyramids is the mysterious Sphinx, almost entirely carved from a single piece of limestone. It is one of the most photographed ancient monuments in the world. Without a doubt, your visit to the Great Pyramids of Giza will be one of the most memorable of your tours in Cairo.

Then continue Cairo day tours to the Saqqara area, located just 27 km southwest of Cairo. Upon arrival in Saqqara, you will visit the Step Pyramid also known as Djoser Pyramid. The pyramid is considered an important part of the pyramid development process, which was made from the simple mastaba to its widely known shape, it is also the first stone structure in the world.

Then drive to Memphis city, the ancient capital of Egypt from the time of the unification of the two lands, where the colossal statue of Ramses II and the great alabaster Sphinx are. At the end of your Cairo trip, you will be transferred back to your hotel after enjoying your yummy lunch meal in one of the good-quality restaurants in Cairo.

An optional Cairo Nile Dinner Cruise is available including transportation, dinner, Belly Dancing, and Tanoura Dance Show.

Overnight at your hotel.
