Day 1 - 1 Arrival in Cairo

Greetings from Cairo! Travel packages to Cairo are the first stop on our 15-day Egypt tour, and Inside Egypt specialists will meet you at Cairo airport to bring you to your hotel for check-in.

After their lengthy flights, tourists will have time to relax in the afternoon.

Dinner served in the hotel's eatery.

Day 2 - EXCLUSIVE! Giza Plateau and egyption museum

Before the site is made accessible to the general public, we will get a 2-hour private tour of the famous Giza Plateau, which is home to the Great Sphinx and the renowned Pyramids of Giza. Thanks to a special permit given to Inside Egypt by the Ministry of Tourism and Antiquities, this exclusive access to the plateau is possible.

The final surviving example of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, the Great Pyramid of Khufu, will be our first stop. The Queen's Chamber and the Subterranean Chamber, which are often off limits to the general public, will be opened especially for us by the guards.

The Great Sphinx will next be our next stop, and this time we'll enter its cage for another exclusive experience.

Lunch at a nearby eatery, then we will visit the Egyptian museum which was A remarkable collection of artwork from the preceding 5000 years can be found in the Egyptian Museum.

In addition to an exhibition of Tutankhamen's wealth, gold, and jewellery collection, all of which were preserved in his tomb for more than 3,500 years, there are over 250,000 actual artefacts on display.

then we will transfer you to your hotel and overnight

Day 3 - old cairo

To explore Coptic Cairo, our tour guide will pick you up from your hotel. Old Cairo, which includes the Babylon Fortress, the Hanging Church, the Greek Church of St. George, as well as numerous other Coptic churches and historical sites, includes Coptic Cairo. According to Christian legend, the Holy Family is said to have travelled through this region and stayed at the Saints Sergius and Bacchus Church location (Abu Serga). Although the majority of the churches' existing structures were constructed after the Muslim invasion of Egypt in the 7th century, Coptic Cairo was a stronghold for Christianity in Egypt up to the Islamic era.

next we'll move on to see Ben Ezra Synagogue.

The Ben Ezra Synagogue, also known as the Synagogue of the Levantines or the El-Geniza Synagogue, is located in Old Cairo, Egypt. Folklore in the area claims that it is situated where infant Moses was discovered. This was the synagogue whose abandoned Hebrew, Aramaic, and Judeo-Arabic secular and religious texts were discovered in its geniza, or store chamber, in the 19th century. Solomon Schechter initiated the transfer of the Cairo Geniza collection to the University of Cambridge in Cambridge, England. It is presently spread out among various academic institutions.

after that we will transfer you to your cairo hotel.

Day 4 - CRUISING THE NILE: Flight to Luxor, Karnak Temple Complex & Luxor Temple

We'll take a morning flight to Luxor, where we'll board a five-star luxury cruise ship to start our Nile cruise excursion.

Luxor was made the capital of Egypt during two different pharaonic dynasties; it was formerly known as Thebes. The ancient city's remains and its necropolis are both included as UNESCO World Heritage Sites. The renowned Karnak Temple Complex, the largest temple complex in the world, is our first visit in Luxor. On the ship, lunch.

We will go to the magnificent Luxor Temple with its obelisk and enormous statues of Ramses II in the evening.

Dinner served on board.

Day 5 - The West Bank of Luxor: Valley of the Kings, Colossi of Memnon & Temple of Queen Hatshepsut

We'll travel to the West Bank of Luxor by Nile cruise after breakfast.

We're going to three tombs in the Valley of the Kings. For a slight additional charge, you can visit a different tomb, namely the well-known tomb of King Tutankhamun.

Then we go to the Colossi of Memnon, which are two colossal statues of Amenhotep III.

The Temple of Queen Hatshepsut in Deir el-Bahari, one of Egypt's most distinctive temples, is the next stop on our schedule. Its construction of limestone sets it apart from the majority of the other New Kingdom funeral temples, which were made of sandstone.

On the ship, lunch. You are free to relax for the remainder of the afternoon. While we cruise to Kom Ombo, you can take advantage of the ship's sunny patio and stunning views of the Nile countryside.

Day 6 - Visit Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples

We'll head to the Crocodile Museum today, where you can see mummified crocodiles and the Kom Ombo Temple, a Ptolemaic-era structure in Egyptian history.

The night before, we set out for Aswan. Enjoy a traditional lunch and a "galabeya party." Everyone wears the traditional attire known as a galabeya, which may be purchased locally or even on the ship. There will be local performances and Egyptian music after dinner. Traditional Egyptian dances are open to all participants. This is a fantastic chance to interact with other visitors while learning more about Egyptian culture and lifestyle.

When we get to Edfu, horse-drawn vehicles will take us to the majestic Temple of Edfu.

We will board the cruise ship again and head back toward Luxor after the site visit. The remainder of the afternoon is free for personal activities. During this time, you can unwind on the sundeck of the ship and take in the sights of the Nile: the distant desert, lush green fields, farmers at work, and charming communities.

Day 7 - Unfinished Obelisk in Aswan, the Temple of Isis on Agilkia Island & high dam

The largest obelisk in the world, the Unfinished Obelisk, is where we'll start the day with a drive.

The goddess of health, love, and wisdom is honoured in the Temple of Isis, which is located on an island in the river and accessible only by speedboat.

You'll be taken to see the spectacular Aswan High Dam after lunch.

then return you to your cruise relax and overnight

Day 8 - Abu Simbel templr- fly to cairo

On our second day in Aswan, we will check out and leave for Abu Simbel, where we will explore two magnificent rock-cut temples that are among the most well-known representations of ancient Egypt. A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Nubian Monuments stretch from Abu Simbel to the island where the Temple of Isis is located. after that, we fly back to Cairo.

Day9 : fayoum day tour

The travel to Fayoum lasts the entire day. After breakfast, we'll go out on an hour-and-a-half journey in an air-conditioned coach, followed by a 4x4 safari to the UNESCO World Heritage Site known as Wadi El Hitan (Whale Valley). We may have time to swim or sandboard when we visit the adjacent Magic Lake.

Lunch at a neighbourhood eatery.

We will then go to the Qasr Qarun Temple.

We will arrive back at our hotel in Cairo in the evening to eat dinner there.

Day 10: Fly to Sharm El Sheikh

As soon as you finish breakfast at the hotel, get ready to be driven to Cairo International Airport so you can continue your Egypt honeymoon Tours and board your flight to Sharm El Sheikh. When you arrive at Sharm El Sheikh airport, a representative from our company will meet you and take you to the hotel so you can check in and have some free time in the afternoon and evening.

Spend the night in the Sharm hotel.

Day 11-Quad Bike Safari Trip in Sharm El Sheikh

Adventure time is arrived! Your private tour guide will pick you up from your hotel at roughly 2:00 PM, and the trip to the nearby Quad Bike Centre will take about 15 minutes. Start your quad bike journey in Sharm with our Xmas Vacation in Egypt programme after a quick safety and driving instruction session. You will traverse the Sinai desert on your quad bike while taking in the breathtaking sights.

You will halt at the highest point after travelling for about an hour, where you can take a break and sip some traditional Bedouin herbal tea. Return to the Quad Bike Center on the bike, and then your air-conditioned conveyance will take you back to your hotel. Enjoy your evening anyway you choose.
