Day3- old cairo tour

When you arrive at the hotel, our guide will pick you up to begin your full-day excursion to Old Cairo. The Saladin Stronghold of Cairo, an ancient Islamic castle in Cairo, Egypt, is a good place to start. Mokattam hill, located close to Cairo's centre, was formerly renowned for its cool wind and breathtaking cityscapes. Take a break for lunch before visiting the Al-Rifa'i Mosque, which is close to Cairo Castle. The structure, which was constructed in Sultan Hassan in 1361 and is situated across from the Mosque-Madrassa, is thought to be a complement to the earlier one.

During Egypt's Mamluk Islamic era, a sizable mosque and madrassa known as the Sultan Hassan Mosque-Madrassa were constructed in the Old City of Cairo. When the mosque was initially built, it was praised for its extraordinary size and cutting-edge architectural features. Al-Maqrizi said that the mosque was home to several "wonders of building" and that its construction had been authorised by an-Nasir Hasan, a sultan with a brief and forgettable career.

In Cairo's Old City, a huge mosque and madrassa known as the Sultan Hassan Mosque-Madrassa were built during the Mamluk Islamic period. The mosque's huge dimensions and cutting-edge architectural characteristics made it special when it was first constructed. Al-Maqrizi said that the mosque had received the endorsement of the mediocre and ephemeral ruler an-Nasir Hasan and that it had various "wonders of architecture."

bring you back to your hotel so you may unwind there.

Day 4 -Bahariya oasis tour

Utilize our safari trip to the Bahariya Oasis and the White Desert by 4*4 to start your breathtaking White Desert Egypt excursion from your lodge. Including a short stop, the journey from Cairo to the Bahariya Oasis takes around four hours.

We will transport you to the Bahriya Oasis, which is around 420 kilometres from Cairo, where you will view the Valley of Golden Mummies and the Temple of Alexander the Great, who conquered Persia and ruled Egypt in 332 B.C. The Temple of Ein Muftella, one of the most important structures in Egyptian history, the Tombs of the Nobles who ruled the region during the 26th dynasty

After lunch at a renowned restaurant where you may try the regional cuisine made with organic ingredients, we'll proceed to the hotel so you can spend the afternoon at leisure relaxing in the nearby hot spring.

In the late afternoon, we will pick you up once again and drive you up the Black Mountain in the land rover so you may examine the ruins of "the English House" and enjoy the wide views over the oasis as darkness falls. the nighttime of Bahariya.

Day 5- the white desert tour

White Desert, which is a component of the Farafra Oasis. In order to visit the Black Desert, which is comprised of a variety of Black formations and mountains that are heavily coated in old volcanic rocks, we will halt along the road for a rest stop. The penultimate settlement of Bahariya to the south is the Valley of El Haize, which we'll pass through next. You may take a hot spring bath right here if you'd like.

We'll next transport you to the picturesque Valley of Agabat where you may practise sandboarding and see the quartz crystal in the Crystal Mountains. Last but not least, you'll camp out in the White Desert for the night and enjoy a breathtaking sunset while your guides make your delicious meal.

Day 6- back cairo

Following a filling breakfast, you'll travel to the White Desert to see the hot springs and take in the breathtaking white limestone structures that have been sculpted here over many centuries by the yearly sandstorms that blow through the area. Numerous local names for these formations exist, including the Mushroom and the Rabbit.

You'll switch to a more comfortable car at Bahariya Oasis and take Bahariya back to your Cairo hotel.
