After that, pause to take pictures with the stunning Great Sphinx. You are free to travel to the Great Pyramid at your own expense. The next step is to visit a nearby restaurant to sample some Egyptian cuisine.

You'll visit the Egyptian Museum when you're done. More than 250,000 objects from more than 5,000 years' worth of history may be found in these extensive exhibitions. Then, at your own expense, you may look around King Tutankhamun's chamber, which is filled with colourful jewels and gold, if you so wish. These exquisite artefacts were kept in the King's tomb for 3,500 years until being uncovered in 1920 during an excavation.

Finally, you will be transported to the Khan el-Khalili Bazaar where you may take in the ambience of a neighbourhood market in the historic district.
