Itinerary

Wheelchair-Accessible Day Tour to Pyramids, the Egyptian museum, Old Islamic and Coptic Cairo, khan El-Khalili, and a Camel Ride

We will meet you at your hotel in Cairo or Giza at 6:30 am to head to Giza Pyramids on The Giza Plateau with a professional English-speaking guide to discover the area and the stories behind its monuments and to take a Camel ride to enjoy the fascinating view. Then, we will leave the Giza Necropolis area to transfer to the oldest museum in the Middle East; the Egyptian museum in downtown Cairo to take a tour around the museum and its halls and stop to take a break for lunch in a near local restaurant.

After resting for a while, comes the next part of our trip; visiting Coptic and Islamic Cairo. Where we will find, the hanging church, Salah El Din Citadel, Al-Azhar mosque, and finally Khan el-Khalili market, to end our wonderful trip and return you back to your hotel.

How is the Old Egyptian Museum going to fare?

The good news is that there is no imminent plan to close the doors of the Old Egyptian Museum. After a series of updates and modifications in recent years, the museum is now better than before.
