Tour to the Chapel of St. John Climacus in Sinai

Visit the beautiful Valley of Ithlah and take advantage of our Tour to the Chapel of St. John Climacus in Sinai. This Orthodox chapel was just built near the cave where St. John the Ladder spent forty years in seclusion.

Alongside the route are peculiar Byzantine ruins. Our hiking vacations in Egypt are paired with an easy hike over a fantastic pathway through our religious tours in Egypt.

Tour to the Chapel of St. John Climacus in Sinai

Cairo Top Tours tour guide will meet you anywhere in Cairo or Giza to transfer you by a private air-conditioned vehicle to the city of Sinai for about a 5-hours drive. Upon arrival, we will check into the Bedouin camp where we will be having some rest and a drink before starting our religious tours in Egypt, the tour to the Chapel of St. John Climacus in Sinai.

Saint John Climacus or also known as the ladder, one of the Byzantine monks of Christianity in Egypt who is related to the ladder of divine ascent, became an idol of monasticism as he spent about forty years of isolation praying for God, he also is an inspiring meditator as he controlled his breath and did postures while praying.

We will be back again to the camp and spend the night after having a tasty dinner meal, then overnight and transfer back to Cairo on the next day after our meditation tours in Egypt are done.
