Wadi Arbaeen Tour

If you want to explore Oman's less-traveled destinations, you should join our tour to Wadi Arbaeen. Your journey will begin with a drive southeast along the coastline to the south. This very picturesque drive will allow you to enjoy a stunning view of the countryside and rugged mountains until you reach the small fishing village of Quriyat. On the way to the wadi, you will explore agricultural villages with date, lemon, and mango plantations.

Wadi Al Arbeieen Tour

A photo stop will be made at each location before arriving at Wadi Arbaeen, an oasis in the middle of the dry mountains. Wadi Arbaeen is one of the most beautiful wadis in Oman, with clear blue waters. This coastal tour is a perfect combination of Oman's natural wonders and landscapes and a visual treat for those who admire the beauty of nature.

Muscat to Wadi Arbreen Tour

Have a taste of your breakfast at the hotel in Muscat, then our representative will pick you up at the hotel to start your wonderful excursion to Wadi Al Arbreen to discover one of the most amazing places in the country. Explore Quriyat, a small coastal fishing village located 83 km southeast of Muscat enjoy

Drive through the village along the picturesque waterfront, where you may spot flamingos and eagles in an inland stream. Next, head to the coast and visit the spectacular Bimah Sinkhole, a miracle of nature with blue and green waters at the bottom, where you can swim in its half-saline waters.

Then embark on an adventurous route through the mountains. At the end of the journey, Wadi Arbreen awaits you with its deep pools of water among the date palms. Wadi Arbreen is a Place for Camping and Outdoor activity where water is running down some water crossings and natural Wadi pools in which people can enjoy swimming and capturing hundred of unique stunning photos of this great nature. Enjoy a picnic lunch in Wadi Arbreen before returning to your hotel in Muscat.
