Tour to Edge of the World

Your dedicated tour leader awaits, holding a sign bearing your name, ensuring a seamless start to your journey. Throughout the tour, expect undivided attention and engaging conversations from your guide. Once onboard the car, your tour leader will discuss various points of interest and tour details.

Start your excursion with a visit to the Qarina Heritage Village, which is an enchanting site that acquaints you with Saudi Arabia's captivating heritage and ancient architecture.

Next, you can go to the renowned Edge of the World in Riyadh, also known as Jabal Fihrayn, which is located approximately 120 kilometers from Riyadh. Standing atop the 1,000-foot high escarpment, you'll be greeted by an awe-inspiring panorama, seemingly at the edge of the world. The dramatic cliffs, rising majestically from the desert, offer uninterrupted views of the horizon, which is a sight that exhilarates the senses.

You will enjoy an optional Saudi lunch at Najd traditional Saudi top restaurant, offering a rich culinary experience amidst a setting steeped in history and heritage.

The Edge of the World, also known as Jebel Fihrayn, is a remarkable geological marvel nestled in the rocky desert northwest of Riyadh. The site earned its moniker due to the uninterrupted vista it offers from atop the escarpment, with views stretching across the horizon. This geological wonder is part of the extensive Tuwaiq Escarpment, dropping down 1,000 feet into an ancient ocean bed.

After soaking in the breathtaking scenery, return to your hotel in comfort. You should explore more of Riyadh's offerings, feel free to share your interests, and we'll be delighted to tailor your itinerary accordingly.
