Amazing Tour to Madain Saleh

This city was previously the second capital of the Nabataean Kingdom. Halfway between Petra and Medina, I discovered this archaeological treasure and wandered freely among the amazing ruins carved from the surrounding sandstone. All existing knowledge about Mada'in Saleh comes from the inscriptions discovered at the site, which include more than a thousand non-archaeological burials with inscriptions and cave drawings, in addition to about 100 decorated burials. Mada'in Saleh is better than its more famous neighbour, Petra in Jordan, despite being a Nabataean city.

Start your tour by visiting a magnificent place, which is called Hegra, and it is also known as Madain Saleh. It's like a big outdoor museum with old buildings and stuff. This city is located in Saudi Arabia, in a place called AlUla. This place used to be a kingdom a long time ago, and most of the things we see there are from that time. It was a really important city, even more important than the capital city called Petra.

Madain Saleh Day Tour

Your tour guide and driver will be there to greet you. You won't need to search for them since they will be waiting for you and they will hold a sign with your name on it.

Your tour guide will focus solely on you from the beginning of the trip. Your tour guide will talk with you once you're in the car about everything that interests you about the tour, including everything that's happening along the route.

Start your tour by visiting the Hegra

Saudi Arabia's first World Heritage site to be registered is the Archaeological Site of Al-Hijr (Madain Saleh). You will see the Elephant Rock. This amazing rock structure is one of AlUla's geomorphological wonders and an iconic landmark, resembling an elephant with its trunk touching the ground.

Then visit Jabal Ikamh, which is an open-air library across AlUla's Valley, lie thousands of inscriptions in Aramaic, Dadanitic, Thamudic, Minaic, and Nabataean. This site is one of the oldest inscriptions of the Islamic era dating back to 24AH (644 CE).

You will be transferred back to your hotel in AlUla.
