Meals: breakfast, lunch

Day 3: Transfer to Aswan - Philae Temple

After breakfast, we arrive in Aswan and travel to our hotel overlooking the Nile, which is at its most beautiful here, with lush green islands and feluccas cruising to and from. Aswan itself is a mix pot of African and Middle Eastern cultures, best experienced by meandering around the bustling marketplaces.

This afternoon, we continue our trip with a visit to the Temple of Philae, a lovely island complex dedicated to Isis that was recovered from the rising waters of Lake Nasser and is accessible via a spectacular boat journey. The evening is then free to explore Aswan's spice and general markets, as well as wander up and down the renowned Corniche along the Nile.

Meals: breakfast, lunch

Day 4: Transfer to Luxor - West bank tour

Following breakfast, you arrive in Aswan and proceed to our accommodation. Let us begin our trip of Luxor's West Bank. Home to the Valley of the Kings, the dusty tombs of this ancient burial site continue to divulge their secrets today, making it one of the world's most important archeological sites. Our trip covers some of these Pharaonic tombs, as well as the temple of Queen Hatchepsut, Deir-el-Medina (the Valley of the Craftsmen), and Memnon's massive Colossi.

Optional tour: This morning, you may take a stunning hot air balloon trip above the Nile's west bank (start early to witness the sunrise as the balloon rises).

Meals: breakfast, lunch

Day 5: Fly to Beirut

Your journey begins with your arrival at Beirut Airport. Our representative will greet you and transfer you to your hotel.

Overnight in Hotel.

Day 6: Byblos - Ksara Winery

After breakfast, we explore Byblos' harbour and sights. Our target today is the hamlet of Zahle, but we'll stop along the route at the Ksara Winery, which is arguably Lebanon's oldest winery.

The caves and tunnels span nearly two kilometers and have been used as wine cellars for decades. You'll be given a guided tour of the caves and winery before sampling (and, if desired, purchasing) some of the fruit at a wine tasting.

Meals: breakfast, lunch

Day 7: Deir al Qamar & Beirut City Tour

After breakfast, we leave Beirut and go to the Chouf Mountains to see the town of Deir al Qamar, which means "Monastery of the Moon". The hamlet is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and served as Lebanon's capital in the seventeenth century. It's quaint and picturesque, with stone buildings and meandering streets.

Then we return to Beirut in the afternoon, where we will have time to do a city tour. Lebanon's capital and biggest city. It is one of the world's oldest cities, with a volatile history that includes both ancient and modern periods. This is obvious in the juxtaposition of new structures with little old dwellings and historical architecture, some of which still have bullet holes and damage from the 1970s civil war.

Meals: breakfast, lunch

Day 8: Tyre and Sidon

Following breakfast, we will travel southern Lebanon. We begin by going to Tyre, often known as Sour in Arabic. It is about 4,000 years old and was a thriving ancient Phoenician metropolis. Tyre has several historical sites and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Our next stop is Sidon, or Saida, another ancient Phoenician city, arguably the oldest. The city got affluent as a result of its superior glass manufacturing and the extraction of a purple dye from murex, a type of shellfish.

In Saida, we will see the Crusader Sea Castle, the Great Mosque, Khan el Franj, and other fascinating monuments. You'll also get the opportunity to meander around the historic souks.

Overnight in Beirut.

Meals: breakfast, lunch

Day 9: Free day in Lebanon

A free day in Lebanon is an excellent opportunity to explore the country's vibrant culture, delicious cuisine, and stunning landscapes.

You can Visit the National Museum of Beirut If you're interested in Lebanon's history and culture, the National Museum of Beirut is a must-visit. It houses a vast collection of artifacts and exhibits that tell the story of Lebanon's rich and complex history.

Or relaxing at your hotel while watching the breathtaking scenery.
