Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive at Beirut

Our guide will receive you at Beirut International Airport and bring you to your chosen lodging. The rest of today is free for you to start visiting this lovely seaside city.

Day 2: Baalbek via Beka'a Valley

Following breakfast, After leaving Beirut, you drive through the picturesque Beka'a Valley to the historic town of Baalbek. The historical location of Baalbek is assumed to have been Phoenician, with settlements reaching back to the third millennium BC. In the first millennium BC, the location was chosen for a temple devoted to the God Baal, from which the city derives its name.

Later, in 334 BC, Alexander the Great conquered this territory and called the city Heliopolis, a name that has been adopted by succeeding Roman kings - Helios, Greek for sun, and Polis, Greek for City - 'City of the Sun'. Today, the town is known for its finely detailed Roman remains, which draw many visitors.
