Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3: Wadi El Sebou - Amada Temple

After having a pleasant breakfast on board, Your Egypt Day Tours continues to Wadi El Sebou, another archaeological site with some fabulous temples constructed by Ramses II himself. This was one area that was moved in order not to be flooded due to Lake Nasser. The reliefs show the great victories of the Pharaohs along with homage to the gods. The temples signify ancient and modern marvels of engineering.

You will also be taken to the Amada Temple, which is one of the oldest temples in Nubia, built by Thutmose III, dedicated to the god Amon Ra. One can still see some of the many well-preserved examples of artwork and inscriptions on the walls with their relation to religious rituals and worship practices of ancient Egyptians. It is a cultic centre, representative of spiritual life at that time, and it points to the skill of the craftsmen of the time, particularly the Nubian people in the times of Thutmose III and Ramses II.

Then you'd head to your cruise ship for afternoon relaxation with great views of Lake Nasser from your cabin. You shall have dinner with delicious food while reflecting on the great experiences from your Egypt Day Tours
